Instructions

Schedule C-EZ is new for 1992. You may use Schedule C-EZ instead of Schedule C if you operated a business or practiced a profession as a sole proprietorship and you have met all the requirements listed above.

Line A.—Describe the business or professional activity that provided your principal source of income reported on line 1. Give the general field or activity and the type of product or service.

Line B.—Enter on this line the four-digit code that identifies your principal business or professional activity. See page 2 for the list of codes.

Line D.—You need an employer identification number (EIN) only if you had a Keogh plan or were required to file an employment, excise, fiduciary, or alcohol, tobacco, and firearms tax return. If you don't have an EIN, leave line D blank. Do not enter your SSN.

Line E.— Enter your business address. Show a street address instead of a box number. Include the suite or room number, if any.

Line 1—Gross Receipts.—Enter gross receipts from your trade or business. Be sure to include any amount you received in your trade or business that was reported on Form(s) 1099-MISC. You must show all items of taxable income actually or constructively received during the year

(in cash, property, or services). Income is constructively received when it is credited to your account or set aside for you to use. Do not offset this amount by any losses.

Line 2—Total Expenses.—Enter the total amount of all deductible business expenses you actually paid during the year. Examples of these expenses include advertising, car and truck expenses, commissions and fees, insurance, interest, legal and professional services, office expense, rent or lease expenses, repairs and maintenance, supplies, taxes, travel, 80% of business meals and entertainment, and utilities (including telephone). For details, see the instructions for Schedule C, Part II, on pages C-2 through C-5.

If you claim car or truck expenses, be sure to complete Part III.

Principal Business or Professional Activity Codes

Locate the major category that best describes your activity. Within the major category, select the activity code that most closely identifies the business or profession that is the principal source of your receipts. Enter this 4-digit code on page 1, line B. For example, real estate agent is under the major category of “Real Estate,” and the code is “5520.”
