

Training for State UI Adjudication Staff Project Description

Available Funds: Up to $9,000 is available for training of State Workforce Agency (SWA) adjudication staff.

Background: The National Judicial College (NJC) has created on-line training for adjudication staff under a grant from USDOL.

- Training costs per session are $450.
- SWAs that wish to provide training for adjudicators may receive funds for additional employees to complete the training.
- For each adjudicator that the state agrees to fund to attend the NJC training, up to a maximum of 10, the SWA may receive funding for two additional adjudication staff, up to a maximum of 20.
- Funds for this project must be obligated by December 31, 2006; therefore, the state must register for available training promptly. The actual training sessions will continue to be conducted after December 2006.
- In the event that funds can not be liquidated within thirty days of the obligation deadline, December 31, 2006, the state should request an extension of the liquidation of the grant.

Questions about this project may be directed to Ericka Parker at Parker.Ericka@dol.gov or Mary Vraney at Vraney.Mary@dol.gov.
