GEORGIA MAN SENTENCED FOR COLLECTING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

ATLANTA, GA -- ROBERT MILTON BAILEY, 27, of Dunwoody, Georgia, was sentenced in federal court to a prison term of 3 years in federal prison for possessing thousands of images of child pornography. BAILEY was caught in a U.S. Postal Service sting when he ordered several videotapes of child pornography from an undercover Postal Service operative. Postal inspectors later found on BAILEY's home computer thousands of photos and videos depicting children engaging in illegal sex acts.

"People who consume child pornography are not passive or unwitting participants in a criminal marketplace. They are, by their actions, keeping alive a despicable and dangerous industry that preys on society's most vulnerable – our children," said United States Attorney David E. Nahmias.

United States District Court Judge Richard W. Story sentenced BAILEY to 3 years in federal prison to be followed by 5 years of supervised release, and was ordered to undergo extensive sex offender treatment. BAILEY was indicted in July 2005 and pleaded guilty in March 2006 to one count of possessing child pornography.

This case was investigated by Inspectors from the United States Postal Service.

Assistant United States Attorney Robert C.I. McBurney prosecuted the case.
