

American Trading Centers

Selling to China just got easier!

Increase your sales in the world's most vibrant market

The U.S. Commercial Service's American Trading Centers (ATC) connect you directly with local, on-the-ground contacts in China, while giving you the support of over 100 U.S. Department of Commerce staff in China and over 100 U.S. Export Assistance Centers throughout the United States.

Through an exclusive partnership between the U.S. Commercial Service and China's national trade promotion organization, the China Council for the Promotion of International Trade (CCPIT), the ATCs put a network of China trade experts at your fingertips, while assuring you the quality of service American businesses have come to expect from the U.S. Commercial Service worldwide.

Get export assistance in 19 major business centers across China

With a network spanning nineteen cities in China, the U.S. Commercial Service gives you access to virtually all major population centers and regional markets in China.

With just one phone call, our trade experts can direct you to promising opportunities for your product/service throughout China.

Get solutions tailored to your needs in China

The ATC network is an effective tool for U.S. exporters at all stages of the export process to China. ATCs can assist new-to-market companies find an agent in China and make their first sale. The ATC network can also help U.S. companies already present in China expand their geographical range and market reach.

Let us help you achieve your goals in China

To learn more about the U.S. Commercial Service and the American Trading Centers in China, visit export.gov/china or call 800-USA-TRADE.