

FARMING with the FAMILY

Making Sound Business Decisions

Woven into the management of the family farm business are the interpersonal dynamics of the family, which create common areas of conflict between family members during times of business succession, expansion, marriage and financial stress. Each area represents a thread, when combined, ties the family and business together. This one-day conference focuses on assisting farm families to improve their interpersonal family dynamics so that they can make better business decisions.

CONFERENCE LOCATIONS:

- Saline County Extension Office
Salina, KS
March 22nd, 2004
9:00am-4:00pm
8:30am Registration
- Northwest Area Extension Office
Colby, KS
March 25th, 2004
9:00am-4:00pm
8:30am Registration
- Ford County Extension Office,
Rose Room
Dodge City, KS
March 26th, 2004
9:00am-4:00pm
8:30am Registration
- Southeast Area Extension Office
Chanute, KS
March 29th, 2004
9:00am-4:00pm
8:30am Registration
- Shawnee County Extension Office
Topeka, KS
April 5th, 2004
9:00am-4:00pm
8:30am Registration
- EVERYONE IS INVITED
-NO COST-

For more information contact:

Kansas Rural Family Helpline

Toll Free:
1.866.FARMKSU
1.866.327.6578

www.ksu.edu/farmksu/
email: farmksu@humec.ksu.edu

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED

