

A woman is shown from the chest up, laughing heartily. She is looking upwards and to the right. In the foreground, there are several glasses of alcohol on a table, including a martini glass and a wine glass. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting a social setting like a bar or restaurant. The overall color palette is dominated by blue and orange tones.

Karen doesn't know
she's pregnant.

By the time she finds out, her baby will already have fetal alcohol syndrome.

Alcohol and unprotected sex don't mix.
