Dear Director,

It is my understanding that the area of Napa known as Tulocay is now finally starting to be recognized for what has always been know as a great place to grow grapes. The seasonal changes here differ from other parts of the Napa Valley and growers and vintners alike are starting to recognize the Tulocay area as unique and special in its climate, soils and growing season.

I for one am really excited about the sub status of Napa's great wine growing region and hope that you look favorably towards designating this special area it's own AVA status.

Sincerely,

Tim Darrin
Grower
