

Comptroller General
David Walker has said:

“It is important to remember, however, that while projections for the next 10-year period look better, the long-term outlook looks worse.”

February 6, 2001 testimony
before the Senate Budget Committee