1           (10) Since some city buses, such as some of 2           those operated by the Washington Metropolitan Area
3           Transit Authority, can use “clean” natural gas, and 4           in order to keep prices affordable to riders of those 5           buses and consumers of natural gas, Congress
6           should open more access to natural gas production
7           in the outer continental shelf.
