

SIGN-UP FOR LIVESTOCK DISASTER PROGRAMS

Radio Public Service Announcements
(Air beginning February 4, 2008, until further notice)

60-Second PSA:

Are you a rancher or livestock producer? Did you suffer feed or livestock losses because of natural disasters in recent years?

If so, you may be eligible to receive benefits through two new disaster programs being offered by the U-S Department of Agriculture. Sign-up is underway at your local USDA Farm Service Agency Service Center.

USDA's Livestock Compensation Program compensates producers for feed losses between January 1st, 2005, and December 31st, 2007.

The Livestock Indemnity Program compensates producers for livestock losses during the same period.

Only producers in primary or contiguous secretarial disaster counties or presidential disaster counties are eligible.

Producers incurring losses in 2005, 2006 or 2007 must select one year for which to receive benefits.

Sign-up for USDA's new livestock disaster programs by visiting your local USDA Farm Service Agency Service Center.
