

CENTERS FOR FAITH-BASED AND COMMUNITY INITIATIVES
2007 FALL EVENTS AND TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES

November, 2007

November 1

U.S. Department of Education NCLB and SES Technical Assistance Workshop, Atlanta, GA

Organizations will learn how to become approved supplemental educational services (SES) providers and how to receive funds for tutoring eligible children in math and language arts. Information will also be given about No Child Left Behind, choice programs, charter schools, the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program (funding for afterschool programs), food and nutrition programs, grant writing, grants administration and capacity building.

Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

November 5-6

White House OFBCI Regional Conference, Indianapolis, IN

Contact: White House OFBCI, (202) 456-6708 or visit www.fbci.gov

November 6

U.S. Department of Education NCLB and SES Technical Assistance Workshop, Montgomery, AL

Organizations will learn how to become approved supplemental educational services (SES) providers and how to receive funds for tutoring eligible children in math and language arts. Information will also be given about No Child Left Behind, choice programs, the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program (funding for afterschool programs), food and nutrition programs, grant writing, grants administration and capacity building.

Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

November 6

Overview of at-risk youth programs within HHS at U.S. Department of Education's Technical Assistance workshop

Montgomery, AL

Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

November 7

White House OFBCI Roundtable on Corporate Citizenship, Washington, DC

The Roundtable will examine the efforts of corporations of all sizes to serve those most in need in their communities. The gathering will bring together Corporate Citizenship Award finalists from the Chamber of Commerce's Business Civic Leadership Center and government officials to discuss how businesses are helping people both domestically and internationally.

Contact: Jake Yunker, White House OFBCI, 202-456-6708 or Jen Sullivan, U.S. Department of Commerce, 202-482-6808

November 7

U.S. Chamber of Commerce Annual Corporate Citizenship Awards Dinner, Washington, DC

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce Annual Corporate Citizenship Awards Dinner showcases business, trade associations, chambers of commerce, and partner organizations for demonstrating ethical leadership and corporate stewardship and for making a positive difference in society.

For more information, visit www.uschamber.com/bclc/awards/default

November 7-9

U.S. Department of Labor Results-Based Management Training, Indianapolis, IN

Seeks to increase the effectiveness and service quality of participating workforce-related faith-based and community organizations (FBCOs) by teaching them to measure, manage, and communicate their results. Selected FBCOs will participate in one of four three day days workshops and will receive a one-year license to a case management software. Please find additional information and application at: <http://www.performance-results.net/dol/index.php>

Contact: Christopher Stio at 202-693-6450 or stio.christopher@dol.gov

November 16

Economic Development Administration Presentation of the Excellence in Economic Development Award

Jay Hein will join Sandy Baruah, Assistant Secretary of Commerce for Economic Development, to present EDA's Excellence in Economic Development Award for Faith-Based and Community Social Entrepreneurship to Kirbyjon Caldwell's Pyramid CDC. The award highlights Pyramid CDC's efforts to advance productive redevelopment strategies in an area of chronic economic distress.

Contact: Jen Sullivan, Department of Commerce, 202-482-6808

November 16

White House OFBCI Community Investment Forum, Houston, TX

The White House Community Investment Forum will examine successful community investment strategies and will showcase social entrepreneurs who are advancing innovative models of economic development.

Contact: Jen Sullivan, U.S. Department of Commerce, 202-482-6808 or Diane Davis, White House FBCI, 202-456-6708

November 28

U.S. Department of Education NCLB and SES Technical Assistance Workshop, Portland, OR

Organizations will learn how to become approved supplemental educational services (SES) providers and how to receive funds for tutoring eligible children in math and language arts. Information will also be given about No Child Left Behind, choice programs, charter schools, the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program (funding for afterschool programs), food and nutrition programs, grant writing, grants administration and capacity building.

Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

November 27-28

White House OFBCI National Summit on Prisoner Re-Entry, Los Angeles, CA

Contact: White House OFBCI, (202) 456-6708 or visit www.fbci.gov

November 29

U.S. Department of Education NCLB and SES Technical Assistance Workshop, Tacoma, WA

Organizations will learn how to become approved supplemental educational services (SES) providers and how to receive funds for tutoring eligible children in math and language arts. Information will also be given about No Child Left Behind, choice programs, the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program (funding for afterschool programs), food and nutrition programs, grant writing, grants administration and capacity building.

Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

November 29

Overview of at-risk youth programs within HHS at U.S. Department of Education's Technical Assistance workshop Tacoma, WA
Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

December, 2007

December 4

U.S. Department of Education NCLB and SES Technical Assistance Workshop, TN
Organizations will learn how to become approved supplemental educational services (SES) providers and how to receive funds for tutoring eligible children in math and language arts. Information will also be given about No Child Left Behind, choice programs, charter schools, the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program (funding for afterschool programs), food and nutrition programs, grant writing, grants administration and capacity building.
Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

December 4

Overview of at-risk youth programs within HHS at U.S. Department of Education's Technical Assistance workshop Nashville, TN
Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

December 6

U.S. Department of Education NCLB and SES Technical Assistance Workshop, Jackson, MS
Organizations will learn how to become approved supplemental educational services (SES) providers and how to receive funds for tutoring eligible children in math and language arts. Information will also be given about No Child Left Behind, choice programs, charter schools, the 21st Century Community Learning Centers program (funding for afterschool programs), food and nutrition programs, grant writing, grants administration and capacity building.
Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html

December 6

Overview of at-risk youth programs within HHS at U.S. Department of Education's Technical Assistance workshop

Jackson, MS

Contact: U.S. Department of Education, (202) 219-1741 or visit: [www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-
workshops.html](http://www.ed.gov/about/inits/list/fbci/suppserv-workshops.html)

December 11-13

U.S. Department of Labor Results-Based Management Training, Dallas, TX

Seeks to increase the effectiveness and service quality of participating workforce-related faith-based and community organizations (FBCOs) by teaching them to measure, manage, and communicate their results. Selected FBCOs will participate in one of four three day days workshops and will receive a one-year license to a case management software. Please find additional information and application at: <http://www.performance-results.net/dol/index.php>

Contact: Christopher Stio at 202-693-6450 or stio.christopher@dol.gov