DOH CITES ABC USED AUTO PARTS, LLC. FOR HAWAII WATER QUALITY STANDARDS AND CLEAN WATER ACT VIOLATIONS

HONOLULU — The Hawaii State Department of Health's Clean Water Branch has issued a Notice of Violation and Order (2006-CW-EO-01) against ABC Used Auto Parts, LLC for violations of the Hawaii Water Quality Standards and the Federal Clean Water Act. ABC Used Auto Parts, LLC has been cited for discharging pollutants into Waiawa Stream and conducting auto salvaging operations without a required National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit.

ABC Used Auto Parts, LLC operates an auto salvaging and recycling facility located at 794-H Lehua Avenue, Pearl City, Hawaii. ABC Used Auto Parts, LLC is not authorized to discharge pollutants, including potentially contaminated storm water to State Waters. A National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit is required to insure that discharges from the facility do not adversely affect the receiving waters. A penalty of $9,100 has been imposed on ABC Used Auto Parts, LLC.

This water pollution enforcement case is in addition to a solid waste enforcement case brought in May 2006.

ABC Used Auto Parts has twenty days to contest the order.
