

SOURCE WATER ASSESSMENT PROGRAM

In December 1996, EPA released a Final Discussion Guide.

In March 1997, EPA released its Draft Source Water Protection Guidance and began conducting Regional Stakeholder Meetings. EPA requested comments on the Draft Guidance by June 13, 1997.

In August 1997, EPA released its Final Source Water Protection Guidance.

The State now has 18 months from the release of EPA's Final Guidance to develop and submit (to EPA) a Source Water Assessment Program Plan.
