

Cary Klafter
Vice President, Legal and Corporate Affairs, and Corporate Secretary
Intel Corporation

Cary Klafter is Vice President, Legal and Corporate Affairs, and Corporate Secretary at Intel Corporation, Santa Clara, California. The Corporate Legal Group is responsible for the company's corporate-level legal activities, including SEC matters, finance and treasury, mergers & acquisitions, venture investments, investor relations, Board of Directors and other corporate governance matters. Intel, the world leader in silicon innovation, develops technologies, products and initiatives to continually advance how people work and live.

Mr. Klafter received a BA and an MS from Michigan State University in 1968 and 1971, respectively, and a JD degree from the University of Chicago Law School in 1972.

Before joining Intel in 1996, Mr. Klafter was a partner in the San Francisco office of the Morrison & Foerster law firm.

Mr. Klafter is chair of the Public Company Affairs Committee of the Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals and is a speaker at various legal and business programs.