

Charles Gregson

After serving as interim chief executive officer of PR Newswire for two years, Charles Gregson took on the full-time role of chief executive officer of PR Newswire in April 2005.

Gregson has held various executive positions within United Business Media, PR Newswire's parent company, since he joined as in-house Counsel in January 1974. The business units he has led at various times under the United Business Media umbrella include its North American businesses, as well as the money and securities broking division, the consumer finance operation, and the market research, stock photography, media relations, national newspapers and advertising publications businesses. He currently serves as an Executive Director for United Business Media.

After serving as member and Chairman of the Board of Directors for PR Newswire for nine years, and interim CEO for two years, Gregson took on the full-time role of chief executive officer of PR Newswire in April 2005.

He is part time Chairman of Garban-Intercapital and Deputy Chairman of Provident Financial plc.