

Want to have your school compete in the LifeSmarts competition but can't make the time commitment? Get assistance from a mentor!

LifeSmarts
Schools

Your students will learn about life skills and real-life consumer issues such as:

- Personal Finance
- Consumer Rights & Responsibilities
- Health & Safety
- Technology
- Environment

Schools to provide:

- Students
- Adult "coach"
- Meeting room for mentors to meet with students
- Computers with internet access

Student training:

September 1 to November 30

LifeSmarts to provide:

- Mentors to guide students
- Teaching curriculum & resources for mentors

For more information on obtaining mentors, call the Department of Education OCISS, Stephen Kow, 733-9141 ext. 418.

For more information on the LifeSmarts program, call the Hawaii LifeSmarts state coordinator, Jackie Choy, 586-2760.

LifeSmarts is brought to Hawaii by the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs in partnership with the Department of Education, Better Business Bureau Foundation, and Hawaii Credit Union League.

mentor n [L.fr. Gk. Mentor] 1. a wise & trusted counselor 2. an influential senior sponsor/supporter.

