Directions

This page includes directions and key information that should be useful for first-time travelers planning a trip to Training Center Yorktown, Virginia. It includes specific directions you'll need to get to the base (including links to maps) and information about commercial transportation.

Arriving from the north

Directions are provided for primary routes for people coming from the vicinity of Washington, Richmond, Norfolk, and other major points. The major roads/routes described in the directions are displayed in the appropriate maps section.

Coming from Washington or Richmond via I-64

I-64 is typically the fastest way to travel from Richmond to the Yorktown area. Most travelers driving from Washington (or other points north) drive south from the Washington DC area on I-95 South to I-295 South (bypasses Richmond) to I-64 East. Route steps once you are on I-64 East are:

1. Take I-64 to Fort Eustis Blvd - Yorktown Exit (Exit 250-B).
2. Proceed 3 and 3/4 miles on Fort Eustis Blvd to traffic light. Turn left on to Route 17 North (George Washington Memorial Highway).
3. Proceed about 3/4 of a mile to second traffic light and turn right onto Cook Rd.
4. Proceed approximately 2 and a 1/2 miles to the "STOP" sign and turn right on to Route 238 East.
5. Follow Route 238 for approximately 1 and a 1/4 miles to the TCYorktown gate.

You can locate these roads in the maps section. Check road conditions here.

Coming from points north via Route 17

Travelers arriving from the north via Route 17 can use the following directions:

1. Follow Route 17 South across the Coleman Memorial Bridge.
2. Proceed approximately 1/4 mile past the bridge and turn left on Route 238 East.
3. Follow Route 238 for approximately 2 miles to the TCYorktown gate.

You can locate these roads in the maps section. Check road conditions here.

Arriving from the south

Most travelers will cross over to the Peninsula via the James River Bridge (Route 17 North), the Monitor-Merrimac Memorial Bridge Tunnel (I-664), or the Hampton Roads Bridge Tunnel (I-64 West). The major roads/routes described in the directions are displayed in the appropriate maps section. Directions to TCYorktown these areas are:

From the James River Bridge (Route 17 North)

1. Route 17 North turns left about 3/4 miles after crossing the James River Bridge and becomes Jefferson Ave/Route 143.
2. Follow Jefferson Ave (Route 17 North) for approximately 4 miles and turn right on to J. Clyde Morris Blvd.
3. Follow J. Clyde Morris Blvd (Route 17 North) for approximately 10 miles (it will become the George Washington Memorial Highway when you cross into York County) until you reach Cook Road.
4. Turn right onto Cook Rd.
5. Proceed approximately 2 and a 1/2 miles to the "STOP" sign and turn right on to Route 238 East.
6. Follow Route 238 for approximately 1 and a 1/4 miles to the TCYorktown gate.

Coming from points south via I-64 or I-664

1. From I-664. Cross over on to the Peninsula via I-664 and continue until you reach I-64 in Hampton. and continue with directions as noted below.
2. From I-64. Follow I-64 (west) toward Yorktown/Williamsburg.
3. Take I-64 to Fort Eustis Blvd - Yorktown Exit (Exit 250-B). At the bottom of the ramp, turn left, then right onto Fort Eustis Blvd.
4. Proceed 3 and 3/4 miles on Fort Eustis Blvd to traffic light. Turn left on to Route 17 North (George Washington Memorial Highway).
5. Proceed about 3/4 of a mile to second traffic light and turn right onto Cook Rd.
6. Proceed approximately 2 and a 1/2 miles to the "STOP" sign and turn right on to Route 238 East.
7. Follow Route 238 for approximately 1 and a 1/4 miles to the TCYorktown gate.
