I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Hawaii Labor Relations Board (HLRB or Board) is a quasi-judicial agency which administers the provisions of Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS) Chapters 89 and 377 regarding collective bargaining in public and private employment. The mission of the Board is to enforce and protect the rights of employees and unions to organize and bargain collectively in balance with the employer's rights to manage operations as provided by law and to fairly and efficiently resolve labor disputes brought before it. The Board is attached to the State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations (DLIR) for administrative purposes only.

The Board conducts hearings to decide complaints filed by public and private sector employees, employee organizations or unions, and employers alleging prohibited or unfair labor practices. These cases typically involve an employer or union's failure to bargain in good faith, an employer or union's interference with an employee's right to participate in or refrain from bargaining activities, or a union's failure to fairly represent its members in the negotiation of agreements or the pursuit of grievances. The Board also conducts union representation elections, supervises the impasse procedures in public employment, and issues declaratory rulings which clarify the applicability of governing statutes and its rules.

The Board has jurisdiction over public employers, i.e., the State of Hawaii and the counties, the Judiciary, the Department of Education, including the public charter schools, the University of Hawaii system, and the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation. In the private sector, the Board has jurisdiction over primarily agricultural employees and employers, and those who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations Board.

The Board also decides contests and appeals of decisions rendered by the DLIR Director, through the Hawaii Occupational Safety and Health Division (HIOSH) under HRS Chapter 396. Its mission under HRS Chapter 396 is to ensure the right of workers to a safe and healthful work environment and encourage employer and employee efforts to reduce injuries and illnesses arising from employment. These cases typically involve employer contests of citations and penalties issued and appeals in discrimination cases involving the reporting of health and safety violations.

In the 2006-2007 fiscal year (FY 2007), a total of 47 employment cases (45 public sector, 2 private sector) and 29 HIOSH cases) were filed with the Board. The Board conducted 63 prehearing or status conferences, 43 motions hearings, and 41 days of hearings and closed 82 cases. The Board issued 9 decisions relating to collective bargaining and 86 orders, including 38 orders disposing of the cases. The Board also issued 1 Occupational Safety and Health decision and 52 orders, including 21 dispositive orders. In addition, the Board was party to 21 court proceedings and was affirmed in 95% of the Court appeals where its decisions were reviewed.

II. INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to HRS § 89-5(a), the Board presents its annual report to the Governor describing its activities for fiscal year 2007 and reflecting the status of the Board on June 30, 2007.

III. MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Board is to enforce and protect the rights of employees and unions to organize and bargain collectively in balance with the employer's rights to manage operations as provided by HRS Chapters 89 and 377 by fairly and efficiently resolving labor disputes brought before it. The Board is committed to promote the harmonious and cooperative relations between the parties.

In 2002, the Board also acquired jurisdiction to conduct de novo hearings on contests from citations issued by the DLIR Director through the HIOSH Division and appeals from HIOSH's findings in discrimination complaints involving retaliation for reporting safety and health violations. The Board's mission pursuant to HRS Chapter 396 is to ensure the right of workers to a safe and healthful work environment and encourage employer and employee efforts to reduce injury and illness arising out of employment.

IV. OVERVIEW

Governing Constitutional Provisions and Statutes

Private employees in the State of Hawaii have a constitutional right to organize. Article XIII, Section 1 of the State Constitution, provides that, "Persons in private employment shall have the right to organize for the purpose of collective bargaining." The Hawaii Employment Relations Act (HERA) was enacted in 1945 and codified as HRS Chapter 377 to permit employees who are not subject to the Railway Labor Act or the National Labor Relations Act to participate in collective bargaining. The Hawaii Employment Relations Board (HERB) was created to administer the provisions of the HERA.

Similarly, in 1968, the State Constitution was amended to afford public employees in the State of Hawaii the right to organize for the purpose of collective bargaining. Article XIII, Section 2 of the State Constitution, provides that, "Persons in public employment shall have the right to organize for the purpose of collective bargaining as provided by law." In 1970, the Legislature enacted Act 171, Session Laws of Hawaii, which was subsequently codified as HRS Chapter 89, Collective Bargaining in Public Employment, to encourage joint decision-making in administering government. The Act created the Hawaii Public Employment Relations Board (HPERB) to administer the provisions of HRS Chapter 89. In 1985, the Legislature abolished the HERB and transferred its functions to the HPERB and renamed it the Hawaii Labor Relations Board, effective January 1, 1986, to administer the provisions of both HRS Chapters 89 and 377.

Thereafter, in 2002, the Legislature enacted Act 104, Session Laws of Hawaii, which empowered the Board to conduct de novo hearings in reviewing contests from citations or orders of the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations involving occupational health and safety pursuant to HRS § 396-11.¹

Functions

The Board is an agency within the DLIR for administrative and budgetary purposes. The Board exercises quasi-judicial powers with jurisdiction over disputes pertaining to collective bargaining in the public sector arising under HRS Chapter 89 and in the private sector under HRS Chapter 377. Accordingly, the primary duties of its members are to hear and decide contested cases involving prohibited or unfair labor practice complaints and to render declaratory rulings on questions submitted. These cases typically involve an employer or union's failure to bargain in good faith, an employer or union's interference with an employee's right to participate in or refrain from bargaining activities, or a union's failure to fairly represent its members in the negotiation of agreements or the pursuit of grievances. The Board also conducts union representation elections, supervises the impasse procedures in public employment, and issues declaratory rulings to clarify the applicability of governing statutes and its rules. In addition, the Board also resolves disputes involving bargaining unit designations and determines the appropriateness of dues refunds for nonmembers.

In the public sector, the Board has jurisdiction over state and county employees, judiciary employees, public school teachers, faculty of the University of Hawaii and community college system, employees of the Hawaii Health Systems Corporation, and charter school employees.

In the private sector, the Board similarly conducts representation elections and resolves unfair labor practice complaints. The Board has jurisdiction over primarily agricultural employees and employers and those private employees and employers who are not subject to the jurisdiction of the National Labor ¹Prior to 2002, the Labor and Industrial Appeals Board of the DLIR (LIRAB) heard contests filed under HRS § 396-11.

Relations Board. Typically, the employees are members of unions or are involved with organizing activities.

In addition, the Board decides contests and appeals of decisions rendered by the Director of Labor and Industrial Relations, State of Hawaii, through HIOSH under HRS Chapter 396. These cases are typically employer contests of citations and penalties issued and appeals in discrimination cases involving retaliation against employees for reporting safety and health violations.

Board Members

The Board is composed of three members, one of whom is representative of management, one who is representative of labor and the third member, the Chair, who represents the public. Each member is appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Senate for six-year terms. Because cumulative experience and continuity in office are essential to the proper administration of HRS Chapter 89, the two-term appointment limit in HRS § 26-34 is not applicable, and members can continue in office as long as efficiency is demonstrated. The Board is composed of the following:

BRIAN K. NAKAMURA, Chair, appointed July 1, 2000; annual salary $85,989. Mr. Nakamura was an attorney in private practice who previously served for two years as general counsel for the Hawaii State Campaign Spending Commission and chief counsel for the Senate Judiciary Committee in 1997. From 1993 to 1996, he was the Executive Officer at the UH Hawaii Natural Energy Institute and prior to that time, served as chief of staff and legal officer in the Lieutenant Governor's Office. Mr. Nakamura also served as U.S. Senator Daniel Inouye's chief of staff and legal officer in his state office and chief of staff and legal officer in the U.S. Senate Sergeant-At-Arms Office, Washington, D.C., as well as legal counsel and legislative assistant to Senator Inouye in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Nakamura graduated from the University of Hawaii with a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Arts and Sciences in Political Science, a teaching certificate in secondary education from the College of Education, and a Juris Doctor degree from the William S. Richardson School of Law.

EMORY J. SPRINGER, Member, appointed July 1, 2005; annual salary $81,690. Mr. Springer graduated from Saint Joseph's High School in Hilo, Hawaii and attended the University of Hawaii – Hilo majoring in Police Science. Mr. Springer served as a police officer for the County of Hawaii for 20 years and during his career, received many letters of commendations and a certificate of merit for bravery. Mr. Springer served eight years as Chair of SHOPO's Hawaii Chapter and in that capacity, participated in representing SHOPO members in numerous grievances and at the negotiating table.

SARAH R. HIRAKAMI, Member, representative of management, appointed July 1, 2006; annual salary $81,690. Ms. Hirakami previously served as deputy legal counsel to the Board of Water Supply, City and County of Honolulu, and as a deputy attorney general in the Employment Law Division of the Department of the Attorney General, State of Hawaii. Prior to becoming an attorney, Ms. Hirakami worked as an engineer. Ms. Hirakami graduated from the University of Hawaii with a Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Engineering, and received a Juris Doctor degree from the William S. Richardson School of Law with a certificate in Environmental Law.

Board Staff

Pursuant to HRS § 89-5(a), the Board may appoint the members of its staff. The Board's secretary and legal clerk are in the civil service system and excluded from collective bargaining. Other staff members are exempt from civil service and excluded from collective bargaining. The staff is composed of the following:

Valri Lei Kunimoto, Executive Officer; annual salary $89,988. Ms. Kunimoto serves as legal counsel to the Board, represents the Board in the courts, and performs such legal and administrative duties as may be delegated by the Board Chair. Her administrative duties may include supervising the other staff members; drafting and editing Board publications and decisions; and responding to inquiries from the public. Ms. Kunimoto has served as the Executive Officer with the Board since April 1981 under Board Chairs Mack Hamada, Bert Tomasu, and Brian Nakamura. She graduated with distinction from the University of Hawaii with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and received a Juris Doctor degree from Hastings College of the Law, University of California. Prior to working with the Board, Ms. Kunimoto served briefly as a law clerk with Chief Justice William S. Richardson, Supreme Court of Hawaii. Thereafter, she served as deputy attorney general in the administration division, advising and representing then Department of Personnel Services and other executive departments in arbitrations, administrative hearings, and litigation regarding administrative law and personnel issues.

Nora A. Ebata, Secretary IV; SR 18L. Ms. Ebata provides clerical services for the Chair and Board members. She also serves as the office manager, supervises the Board's clerical staff and is responsible for fiscal and personnel recordkeeping, including purchasing and travel for the Board. Ms. Ebata also types Board decisions, orders, notices, and other Board publications; prepares court documents; serves as a clerk in Board proceedings; and responds to public inquiries.

Sau Lan Leung, Legal Clerk; SR 14. Ms. Leung performs a variety of clerical tasks; drafts and finalizes Board decisions, orders, notices and legislative documents; prepares and files court documents, including pleadings, records on appeals, and briefs; and maintains the Board's library. Ms. Leung also responds to public inquiries and when requested, serves as an interpreter for the department.

V. DATA ON THE PUBLIC SECTOR BARGAINING UNITS

The collective bargaining law for public employees divides all State and county employees covered by Chapter 89, HRS, into 13 units based upon occupational and compensation plan groupings. These bargaining units, described in HRS § 89-6(a), are as follows:

- (1) Non-supervisory employees in blue collar positions;
- (2) Supervisory employees in blue collar positions;
- (3) Non-supervisory employees in white collar positions;
- (4) Supervisory employees in white collar positions;
- (5) Teachers and other personnel of the department of education under the same pay schedule, including part-time employees working less than twenty hours a week who are equal to one-half of a full-time equivalent;
- (6) Educational officers and other personnel of the department of education under the same pay schedule;
- (7) Faculty of the University of Hawaii and the community college system;
- (8) Personnel of the University of Hawaii and the community college system, other than faculty;
- (9) Registered professional nurses;
- (10) Institutional, health and correctional workers;
- (11) Firefighters;
- (12) Police officers; and
- (13) Professional and scientific employees, who cannot be included in any of the other bargaining units.

It is customary to refer to the bargaining units by the numbers used in HRS § 89-6(a). For example, the unit consisting of firefighters is referred to as Unit 11.

Exclusive Representatives

All 13 public employee collective bargaining units have selected employee organizations to serve as their exclusive representatives. Throughout the remainder of this report, the following abbreviations will be used to refer to the respective exclusive representatives (or unions):

HFFA	Hawaii Fire Fighters Association, Local 1463, IAFF, AFL-CIO
HGEA	Hawaii Government Employees Association, AFSCME, Local 152, AFL-CIO

HSTA Hawaii State Teachers Association
 SHOPO State of Hawaii Organization of Police Officers
 UHPA University of Hawaii Professional Assembly (NEA-AAUP)
 UPW United Public Workers, AFSCME, Local 646, AFL-CIO

Number of Employees in Units

The following table indicates, for each bargaining unit, the number of employees who are included in the unit, the union and the date that the union was initially selected and certified as the exclusive representative.

In the 2006-2007 fiscal year (FY 2007), a total of 47 employment cases (45 public sector, 2 private sector) and 29 HIOSH cases) were filed with the Board. The Board conducted 63 prehearing or status conferences, 43 motions hearings, and 41 days of hearings and closed 82 cases. The Board issued 9 decisions relating to collective bargaining and 86 orders, including 38 orders disposing of the cases. The Board also issued 1 Occupational Safety and Health decision and 52 orders, including 21 dispositive orders. In addition, the Board was party to 21 court proceedings and was affirmed in 95% of the Court appeals where its decisions were reviewed.

One measure of the Board's efficiency is the percentage of cases disposed of within 30 days of submission. During FY 2007, the Board closed 84% of the cases within 30 days. These cases vary in complexity; some involving issues affecting one employee and others affecting the rights of a large number of employees.

VII. PUBLICATIONS

1. HLRB Decisions: The Board, working with the Industrial Relations Center (IRC), University of Hawaii, publishes the Board's decisions in loose-leaf binders for sale on a subscription basis. Thus far Volume 1, containing Decision Nos. 1 through 85 covering the years 1971-77; Volume 2, containing Decision Nos. 86 through 155 covering the years 1978-81; Volume 3, containing Decision Nos. 156 through 209 covering the years 1982-85; Volume 4, containing Decision Nos. 210 through 311 covering the years 1986-90; Volume 5, containing Decision Nos. 312 through 393 covering the years 1991-97; and Volume 6 containing Decision Nos. 394 to 456, have been issued. Copies of recent decisions are available on the Board's website at www.hawaii.gov/labor.

The Board also distributes copies of its decisions as they are rendered to the respective parties in interest, the State agencies as required by HRS § 93-3.

2. Informational Bulletin: Each year the Board issues an Informational Bulletin which provides, by employing jurisdictions, the number of public employees in each of the 13 collective bargaining units established by HRS § 89-6(a). The figures are compiled from data supplied by the public employers.

3. Website: Rules, forms, bulletins and recent decisions of the Board are posted on the DLIR website at www.hawaii.gov/labor.

VIII. CONCLUSION

In reviewing the case activity for labor relations cases for this fiscal year, the Board believes it has continued to meet its goals of fairly administering the provisions of HRS Chapters 89 and 377, credibly and objectively resolving the labor-management disputes brought before it by promoting good faith and harmony in the working relationships of the respective parties. As the Board oversees the impasse procedure for the renewal of the bargaining unit contracts, the Board notes to the credit of all parties, that all bargaining unit contracts which expired on June 30, 2007, were negotiated or arbitrated without any remarkable incident. In addition, during this past year, the Board actively encouraged the parties to mediate or settle their disputes and was successful in a number of cases in working with the parties to resolve the issues underlying their complaints. Also, pursuant to a request from the DLIR Director to assist another division to resolve its backlog of cases, the Board provided assistance to resolve a number of cases.

With respect to the HIOSH contests, the Board conducted de novo hearings on the contests of citations. The Board strives to provide a forum for the fair and efficient adjudication of safety and health contests by balancing the rights of employers while securing the safety of their workers. As evidenced by the closed cases in Appendix A, the parties were successful in settling a number of contests. The Board commends the parties for their reasonableness in resolving their disputes.

Finally, the Board expresses its appreciation to Board Chair Brian Nakamura whose term expired on June 30, 2007. Mr. Nakamura served as Chair of the Board for seven years. We wish him well after his years of service with the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

EMORY J. SPRINGER, Member
