

ITI Regional Workshop and Roundtable

As part of the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) Indian Telecommunications Initiatives ("ITI"), and in cooperation with Native Public Media (NPM), the National Congress of American Indians (NCAI), Native American Public Telecommunications (NAPT), Native American Journalist Association (NAJA), Native American Television ("NATV"), Koahnic Broadcast Corporation (KBC), the FCC will host its sixth ITI Regional Workshop and Roundtable on July 10 and 11, 2007, in Albuquerque, New Mexico (ITI Albuquerque).

ITI Albuquerque will focus on the transition to DTV and the steps that consumers will need to take to continue viewing over-the-air signals when analog broadcasting ceases on February 17, 2009. In addition to DTV transition awareness, FCC staff will provide a comprehensive overview of the FCC's broadcast licensing processes and auctions procedures.

For more information go to http://hraunfoss.fcc.gov/edocs_public/attachmatch/DA-07-2424A1.pdf