Dear FCC,

I am writing to request exemption from the upcoming requirement to provide closed captioning for our program "Cal-Hi Sports Bay Area" produced by our independent production company Annabelle Productions. Because of the nature of our show, the hardship the cost of closed captioning would cost, the fact our show is children's informational programming although it is not produced by a public television station, and the inability for us to add closed captioning to our show we feel our show should be granted a waiver from this requirement.

Cal-Hi Sports Bay Area is a high school sports highlight and feature program showing teenagers from all around the Bay Area competing in high school sports. The takes a very positive look at how the teens compete and the accomplishments they make in achieving their goals and overcoming obstacles in their lives. The program airs on both KRON 4 and FSN Bay Area in the San Francisco television market. Three times each week.

The monetary hardship for Annabelle Productions would be based on the total revenue for the company in 2004 of $310,768. Based on $5,200 per year ($100 per show) for each of the three airings of the show would mean an expense of $15,600 per year for our program to have the show air with closed captioning. That would mean an expense equal to 5% of our total gross revenue significantly higher than the 2% maximum called for in 79.1 d (11).

Because we are a small production company producing just this one program we do not have the resources or capability to produce the closed captioning ourselves. We would have to hire an outside company to do this for us. Because the program airs very quickly after it is produced there is not time to do it ourselves even if we could. Because the captioning has to be put on live it is more expensive. Our program is not live but is produced throughout the week and completed just before air time each week. Electronic newsroom type captioning is not an option since we do not have that kind of system at our company. I believe we would be considered as a program with no repeat value since the show is aired only it's scheduled times and then never repeated, it is locally produced with local public interest, and it is not a news program. For these reason I believe we would also qualify for the exemption under 79.1 d (8).

Our show is informative and qualifies under FCC rules as Children's informational program. In addition to the weekly feature story showing how local teens overcome adversity in their lives, we have a weekly medical tip segment with a local Doctor giving advice on how to avoid and treat injuries. There is a training tip segment with a trainer explaining how to train correctly and safely. Though this program is not produced by a public broadcast station it does have significant educational value to our area teens. So under 79.1 D (13) a waiver should be granted.

Further information on our revenue status can be obtained through the Federal Tax returns of Annabelle Productions Fed ID [REDACTED]

Thank you for your consideration,

Sincerely,

The program airs on both KRON 4 and FSN Bay Area in the San Francisco television market. Three times each week. Both KRON 4 and Fox Sports Net have said they will not incur the cost of closed captioning for this show and would pass the cost along to us.

We have tried to have the cost of this covered through additional closed caption sponsorships without success. We will continue to try and bring in this type of sponsor and would inform the FCC if this happens.

The monetary hardship for Annabelle Productions would be based on the total revenue for the company in 2004 of $310,768. Dear Ms. Brown,

Included in this mailing is a copy of our federal tax return for this past year. As you will see our company lost money last year. Adding expenses for closed captioning would just add to that loss.

The sworn affidavit by me confirms the contents of this new filing and all prior filings are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
