Evaluation and Selection

King County Parks may select proposals that are determined to be in the best interest of the public, based on project compatibility with the selected location(s), projected revenue or other benefit to King County Parks Division, feasibility & timing of implementation, demonstrated success, prior experience and other relevant information.

Parks Division may select, in its sole discretion, proposals it deems most feasible and beneficial to the citizens of King County. Parks Division may negotiate agreements with Proposers that differ from the terms contained in its proposal. Agreements will contain provisions appropriate to the particular proposal, consistent with County policies and applicable law. Parks Division may reject any or all proposals and this RFI&P process does not preclude Parks Division from entering into agreements using other procedures. Any Proposer selected for a contract shall complete all required forms and documents as required by Federal, state and local law. By submitting a proposal, Proposers agree to the terms of this RFI&P.
