Catherine J. Martin, Assistant to the Vice President for Public Affairs
Neil Patel, Assistant to the Vice President and Staff Secretary
Victoria Nuland, Principal Deputy Assistant to the Vice President for National Security Affairs
Debra A. Heiden, Executive Assistant to the Vice President

FROM: David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President

SUBJECT: Collection of Certain Documents for Department of Justice Investigation

Please read this entire memorandum carefully. It deals with legal obligations that apply to you.

The Criminal Division of the Department of Justice has issued a request dated December 16, 2003 ("DOJ Request," Attachment 1) for production of six categories of documents of the Office of the Vice President (OVP). The OVP will respond fully, cooperatively, and in accordance with the law. The purpose of this memorandum is to obtain your assistance in ensuring that the OVP so responds.

Please read DOJ Request and this memorandum carefully and then carry out the instructions in this memorandum. Your compliance with this memorandum is mandatory.

As you read the DOJ Request and this memorandum, please pay particular attention to the parameters of the DOJ Request, such as beginning and ending dates and specifications of subjects of documents. The term "document," as used in the DOJ Request and this memorandum, is used in a broad sense and includes without limitation all electronic records, telephone records of any kind (including but not limited to any documents that memorialize telephone calls having been made), correspondence, computer records, storage devices, notes, memoranda, and diary and calendar entries, as well as documents covered by the Presidential Records Act and other letters, telephone call slips or logs, notes, and e-mail, and specifically including any documents that may have been archived in the Office of Records Management. You do not need to produce press clips or articles (such as the daily White House press clips) as long as there are no notations or marks upon them and they are not attachments to, or filed as part of, another document.

You must complete the following steps by not later than the close of business on Monday, December 22, 2003:

Step 1. Search for all documents you possess or control that are responsive to the DOJ Request. Your search for documents must be reasonable, diligent and conducted in good faith. In the course of the search, retrieve all documents that are responsive to the DOJ Request. For document categories 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of the DOJ Request, you will have met your obligations if you retrieve, photocopy, and produce to me, as provided in Step 2, PHOTOCOPIES of the documents. For documents in category 1 of the DOJ Request, you will have met your obligations if you retrieve and produce to me, as provided in Step 2, ORIGINALS of the documents. With respect to any originals you produce, please retain copies for your files.

Step 2. Complete the attached certification (Attachment 2). If you have found documents pursuant to Step 1 above, attach the documents to the certification, place it in a sealed envelope (or, if necessary, a box) labeled "For VP Counsel," and have the envelope (or box) handcarried to me (David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President, Room 268, Eisenhower Executive Office Building, telephone [REDACTED] or via Signal Switchboard). If your responsive documents include material that contains classified national security information, please ensure that you hand-deliver your documents directly to me, drawing to my attention the classified nature of them.

Please call me or stop by my office if you have any questions. Thank you for your cooperation.

Subject: Special Instructions Unique to You Regarding Subpoenas

Scooter:

Because of your unique status as a commissioned officer of the President in the White House Office, but whose duties are principally service for the Vice President, you will receive both my e-mail instruction to preserve documents in response to grand jury subpoenas, and Al Gonzale's instruction to preserve documents in response to grand jury subpoenas. The scope of the subpoenas differs, as you will see when you compare the text of Al's preservation instruction and my preservation instruction. You must preserve documents that fall under either Al's instruction or my instruction.

When it comes to production of documents (on which instructions will come next week) all your production regardless of what subpoena it responds to, will be submitted to me, as Al's Deputy and I continue to deal with your records, as we have consistently throughout this investigation and in all Presidential Records Act contexts, as OVP records.

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON

January 26, 2004

MEMORANDUM FOR: Employees, Assignees and Detailees of the Office of the Vice President
FROM: David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President
SUBJECT: ACTION -- Search for and Retrieval of Documents for Grand Jury

Please read this entire memorandum carefully. It deals with legal obligations that apply to you.

A grand jury of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia has issued two subpoenas dated January 22, 2004 (copies at Attachment 1) to the Office of the Vice President (OVP) commanding production of certain documents for the investigation into possible disclosure to unauthorized persons of classified information concerning Ambassador Joseph Wilson, his trip to Niger in February 2002, his wife, and matters relating thereto. The OVP will respond fully, cooperatively, and in accordance with the law. The purpose of this memorandum is to obtain your assistance in ensuring that the OVP so responds. Please read the subpoenas and this memorandum carefully and then carry out the instructions in this memorandum. Your compliance with this memorandum is mandatory.

The term "document" in this memorandum is used in a broad sense and includes without limitation "all electronic records, written records, telephone records of any kind (including but not limited to any documents that memorialize telephone calls having been made), correspondence, computer records, e-mail, storage devices, notes (whether handwritten or typed or in any other format), memoranda, and diary and calendar entries," as well as documents covered by the Presidential Records Act, telephone call slips or logs, and specifically includes any documents that may have been archived in the Office of Records Management.

You must complete the following steps by not later than the close of business on Thursday, January 29, 2004:

Step 1. Search for all documents you possess or control that are responsive to the subpoenas. Your search for documents must be reasonable, diligent and conducted in good faith. In the course of the search, retrieve all documents that are responsive to the subpoena and photocopy them. You will have met your obligations if you retrieve, photocopy, and produce to me, as provided in Step 2, all documents that relate in any way to:

- (a) any and all documents of telephone calls made to and from Air Force Two on July 12, 2003;
- (b) any and all documents of telephone calls made to and from the government vehicles in which members of the staff of the Office of the Vice President traveled from Andrews Air Force Base on July 12, 2003; or
- (c) any or all documents created between February 1, 2002 and January 23, 2004, inclusive, concerning any discussion of the following: (i) Ambassador Joseph Wilson or his wife; (ii) Valerie Plame Wilson (or "Valerie Wilson" or "Valerie Plame"); or (iii) a trip undertaken by former Ambassador Joseph Wilson to Niger in 2002 (even if the items/documents themselves do not refer to him by name), including but not limited to: the origin of such trip (including the persons involved in deciding who would go), the findings or results of such trip by Ambassador Wilson, any relationship Wilson had with any employee at the CIA, contacts, attempted contacts, or discussion of contacts (directly or indirectly) with any members of the media concerning Wilson, his trip, or his wife.

In response to Category (c) above, you do NOT need to retrieve and provide to me another copy of documents you have already given to me in response to previous document searches in this investigation. Note, however, that previous searches for documents that would be responsive to Category (c) above did not cover the period October 1, 2003 through January 23, 2004, inclusive, so this will be your first search for Category (c) documents for the period October 1, 2003 through January 23, 2004. Also, in searching for Category (c) records, the term "members of the media" includes, but is not limited to, the following: (1) Robert Novak, (2) Crossfire, (3) Capital Gang, (4) Chicago Sun-Times, (5) Knut Royce, (6) Timothy Phelps, (7) Newsday, (8) Walter Pincus, (9) Richard Leiby, (10) Mike Allen, (11) Dana Priest, (12) Glenn Kessler, (13) Washington Post, (14) Matthew Cooper, (15) John Dickerson, (16) Massimo Calabresi, (17) Michael Duffy, (18) James Carney, (19) Time Magazine, (20) Evan Thomas, (21) Newsweek, (22) Andrea Mitchell, (23) Meet the Press, (24) Chris Matthews, (25) Hardball, (26) MSNBC, (27) Tim Russert, (28) Campbell Brown, (29) NBC, (30) Nicholas Kristof, (31) David Sanger, (32) Judith Miller, (33) New York Times, (34) Greg Hitt, (35) Paul Gigot, (36) Wall Street Journal, (37) John Solomon, (38) Associated Press, (39) USA Today, (40) Jeff Gannon, and (41) Talon News.

Finally, you do not need to provide to me press clips or articles (such as the daily White House press clips) as long as there are no notations or marks upon them and they are not attachments to, or filed as part of, another document.

When you make photocopies to give to me, please check the legibility of them -- in particular, please make sure your photocopier is set at a sufficient "darker" setting so that blue-ink originals copy legibly.

Step 2. Complete the attached certification (Attachment 2). If you have found responsive documents pursuant to Step 1 above, attach the photocopies of them to the certification, place it in a sealed envelope (or, if necessary, a box) labeled "For VP Counsel," and have the envelope (or box) handcarried to me (David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President, Room 268, Eisenhower Executive Office Building, telephone [REDACTED] or via Signal Switchboard). If your responsive documents include material that contains classified national security information, please ensure that you hand-deliver your documents directly to me, drawing to my attention the classified nature of them.

Please call me or stop by my office if you have any questions. Thank you for your cooperation.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Jennifer Mayfield, Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff

FROM:  David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President

SUBJECT: ACTION -- Respond to Request from Office of Special Counsel

Please read this entire memorandum carefully. It deals with legal obligations that apply to you.

Deputy Special Counsel Ronald Roos telephoned me today with a request with regard to the investigation into possible disclosure to unauthorized persons of classified information concerning Ambassador Joseph Wilson, his trip to Niger in February 2002, his wife, and matters relating thereto. The Office of the Vice President (OVP) will respond fully, cooperatively, and in accordance with the law. The purpose of this memorandum is to obtain your assistance in ensuring that the OVP so responds. Your compliance with this memorandum is mandatory.

Mr. Roos advised that the Office of Special Counsel of the Department of Justice has learned that you maintain within OVP a file labeled something like "Niger/Uranium" that contains press clippings, some of which may bear markings. The Office of Special Counsel requested that OVP produce a copy of the entire contents of the file.

You must complete the following steps by not later than the close of business on Monday, March 22, 2004:

Step 1. Search for the requested file. Your search for the file must be reasonable, diligent and conducted in good faith. Photocopy all the contents of the file and photocopy the file label. When you make photocopies, please check the legibility of them -- in particular, please make sure your photocopier is set at a sufficient "darker" setting so that any blue-ink originals copy legibly. Please note that you should photocopy the entire contents of the file, even if you have already provided to me, in response to prior requests or subpoenas, photocopies of all or part of the same material.

Step 2. Complete the attached certification (Attachment 2). Attach to the certification the photocopies of the file label and contents of the file, place them in a sealed envelope (or, if necessary, a box) labeled "For VP Counsel," and have the envelope (or box) handcarried to me (David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President, Room 268, Eisenhower Executive Office Building, telephone  or via Signal Switchboard). If the photocopies include material that contains classified national security information, please ensure that you hand-deliver your documents directly to me, drawing to my attention the classified nature of them.

Please call me or stop by my office if you have any questions. Thank you for your cooperation.

SUBJECT: ACTION -- Search for and Retrieval of Documents for Grand Jury

Please read this entire memorandum carefully. It deals with legal obligations that apply to you.

The United States District Court for the District of Columbia has issued a subpoena dated April 6, 2004 (copy at Attachment 1) to the Office of the Vice President (OVP) commanding production of certain documents for the grand jury in the investigation into possible disclosure to unauthorized persons of classified information concerning Ambassador Joseph Wilson, his trip to Niger in February 2002, his wife, and matters relating thereto. The OVP will respond fully, cooperatively, and in accordance with the law. The purpose of this memorandum is to obtain your assistance in ensuring that the OVP so responds.

Please read the subpoena and this memorandum carefully and then carry out the instructions in this memorandum. Your compliance with this memorandum is mandatory.

The subpoena requires production of: "All versions and/or drafts of daily schedules and calendars for Vice President Richard B. Cheney and Chief of Staff Lewis Libby for the period July 6, 2003 through July 14, 2003." Please note that, even if you have produced copies of such a document for me before in this investigation, you must produce a copy again in response to this memorandum. Also, please note that the terms "schedules" and "calendars" include all items commonly referred to by those terms, as well as what OVP refers to as daily, narrative, block, line-by-line, and Advance trip-booklets for trips. In addition, please note that the subpoena calls for "all versions" and all "drafts" and not just final versions of the items. Finally, please note that the subpoena calls for these items for a specific time period of July 6 through 14, 2003 (which includes July 6, July 14, and all days in between in 2003).

You must complete the following steps by not later than the close of business on Friday, April 9, 2004:

Step 1. Search for all documents you possess or control that are responsive to the subpoenas. Your search for documents must be reasonable, diligent and conducted in good faith. In the course of the search, retrieve all documents that are responsive to the subpoena and photocopy them. You will have met your obligations if you retrieve, photocopy, and produce to me, as provided in Step 2, all documents that meet the following description:

"All versions and/or drafts of daily schedules and calendars for Vice President Richard B. Cheney and Chief of Staff Lewis Libby for the period July 6, 2003 through July 14, 2003."

When you make photocopies to give to me, please check the legibility of them -- in particular, please make sure your copier is set at a sufficient "darker" setting so that any blue-ink originals copy legibly.

Step 2. Complete the attached certification (Attachment 2). If you have found responsive documents pursuant to Step 1 above, attach the photocopies of them to the certification, place it in a sealed envelope (or, if necessary, a box) labeled "For VP Counsel," and have the envelope (or box) handcarried to me (David S. Addington, Counsel to the Vice President, Room 268, Eisenhower Executive Office Building, telephone [REDACTED] or via Signal Switchboard). If your responsive documents include material that contains classified national security information, please ensure that you hand-deliver your documents directly to me, drawing to my attention the classified nature of them.

Please call me or stop by my office if you have any questions. Thank you for your cooperation.
