

History

The purpose of this page is to provide a quick insight into the history of various types of equipment that have been used at the location.

Publication/Location of Records

Starting Date: Enter the date when records/publications started to be published.

Ending Date: Enter the date when the publishing of records/publications ended.

Type of Gage: List each type of gage that has been used at the site.

Owner: List the owners of each gage type.

Starting Date: List the dates when each gage began service.

Ending Date: List the dates when each gage was removed (leave this blank if still in service).

Zero Elevation This section should provide a history of the changes in the zero elevation.

Starting Date Enter the starting date that the zero elevation was calculated.

How can you find this information???

USGS Water Resources Data (paper copies or CD ROM)
USGS Gaging Description
Cooperative site information published by the National Climatic Data Center
Old E-19s for the site
Talking with the owning agency

