

Facilities (1)	Number of Improvements (1)
Ballfields:
Youth Baseball Fields	49
General/Adult Lit Ball Fields	21
Basketball Courts:
Full	56
Half	66
Game Fields	137
Play Areas	123
Community centers (gymnasiums at 8 locations)	22
Community Center Satellites	1
Golf Courses (3 18-hole and 9-hole, and 1 9-hole)	4
Swimming pools (5 indoor pools)	12
Tennis courts (21 lit)	138
Trails (95 miles paved &amp; 12 miles unpaved)	107 miles
	Volumes
	June 30, 2002
Libraries
Albuquerque Public Library (1)
(Main branch and 16 area branches,bookmobile, bookvan)	1,326,008
University of New Mexico:
General, Fine Arts, Parish, Centennial & Zimmerman	2,024,133
Law school library	232,940
Health science center library	175,998
Other	40,999
Total	2,474,070
Technical Vocational Institute	53,794
 Source: listed libraries
Municipal Water (1)
Number of customers (June 2002)	150,146 meters
Average daily water production (FY 2002)	98.8 million gallons per day
Miles of water lines (June 2002)	2,470
Municipal Sewer (1)
Number of sewer customers (June 2002)	144,514
Miles of storm lines (June 2002)	497
Miles of sanitary lines (June 2002)	1,846
Storm drainage channels including lined channels and unlined arroyos	203 miles
Sources:
(1) City Departments
(2) Acreage includes the Rio Grande State Park, which the City does not own, but is within the City's jurisdiction.	