

Records of Changes to the 2007 Oregon Urban Search and Rescue Operations Manual adopted in April 2007 by the US&R Governance Board

No.	Chapter	Page	Table of Contents pages reflect the following:
1.	Chapter 1	2	Update statutory language. Change HB 2154 to ORS 401.638.
2.	Chapter 1	2	Clarification language on regional teams and capabilities to include hazmat materials response, and Incident Management Teams.
3.	Chapter 1	3	EMAC agreement: change the number of state participating from 47 to 50.
4.	Chapter 1	5	Updated regional map and change and descriptive language for counties.
5.	Chapter 1	11	Updated organizational chart 35 person deployment.
6.	Chapter 2	6	Added Medical Team Manager position.
7.	Chapter 2	8	Changed Rescue Company Medical Technician to Paramedic.
8.	Chapter 2	8	Changed Search Company changed to 1 or more Search Technicians to operate as a company. This is reflected in the Org, chart.
9.	Chapter 3	13	Clarified language of cache trailer equipment authorized through OSFM for non-Governor declared deployment, or mutual aid request.
10.	Chapter 3	13	Add third paragraph: Mobilization requested under EMAC or through Oregon Emergency Management.
11.	Chapter 3	19	Changed to Rescue Team Manager has the responsibility to organize the POD.
12.	Chapter 3	19	Changed Mobilization Officer to Rescue Team Manager.
13.	Chapter 3	19	Add Rescue team Manager is responsible for activating, dispatching and assembling the remaining Task Force resources through the approved regional procedures, RTM appoints an assistant to help with these tasks: A) RTM shall identify and activate all task Force resources, They shall be dispatched to assemble at the POD for mobilization within a 2 hour response objective. B) The RTM shall check in procedures to be completed prior to mobilization.
14.	Chapter 4	29	Changed audible signals to reflect Oregon state standards.
17.	Chapter 5	35	Added language for Non-mission Cache Management.
15.	Adoption		Change all references from OR-US&R to OR-TF1.
16.	Adoption		Add regional notification procedures and rotation schedules.