

Forming a Sub-Governmental/Public Fire Department: a Rural Fire Protection District (RFPD)

The Office of State Fire Marshal (OSFM) encourages forming under one of the following options, if applicable:

- 1) Rural Fire Protection District (RFPD) formed under ORS 478 and ORS 198
- 2) City Fire Department formed under city charter
- 3) Domestic Water Supply District under ORS 264.340 and ORS 198
- 4) County Service District under ORS 451.010 and ORS 199.420 (7)
- 5) Governmental Industry Fire Brigade

Useful links and resources:

- ◆ Oregon Special Districts Association (SDAO)
SDAO can assist with formation of Rural Fire Protection Districts.
<http://www.sdao.com>
- ◆ League of Oregon Cities (LOC)
LOC can assist with formation of a fire department for incorporated cities.
<http://www.orcities.org>
- ◆ Association of Oregon Counties (AOC)
AOC can assist with formation of County Service Districts (the only example in the State of Oregon is Sun River Fire Department in Deschutes County, 2007).
<http://www.aocweb.org/aoc/default.aspx>
- ◆ Oregon Fire District Directors Association (OFDDA)
OFDDA provides information on issues ranging from personnel, budget law, public contracting, and public meetings.
<http://www.ofdda.com>
- ◆ Oregon State Social Security Administration (OSSSA)
OSSSA provides critical information about Social Security coverage for State and Local Government Employees.
Contact Karen Park, State Social Security Coordinator.
Karen.park@state.or.us