National Income and Product Accounts of the United States, 1929-94. (1998) This two-volume set presents the estimates of the national income and product accounts (NIPAs) that reflect the most recent comprehensive revision and the 1997 annual revision. The text describes the definitions and classifications that underlie the NIPAs and the statistical conventions used in the NIPAs; an appendix lists the principal source data and methods that are used in preparing the estimates. $58.00, stock no. 003-010-00272-7.

Benchmark Input-Output Accounts of the United States, 1987. (1994) This publication presents summary and detailed make and use tables for industries and commodities; tables showing commodity- and industry-output requirements per dollar of commodity demanded; and tables showing the input-output (I-O) commodity composition of personal consumption expenditures and producers' durable equipment expenditures in the national income and product accounts. It presents concepts and methods used in the 1987 benchmark accounts; a concordance between I-O and 1987 Standard Industrial Classification codes; a description of the components of the measures of output, intermediate inputs, and value added; and the mathematical derivation of total requirements tables. $29.00, stock no. 003-010-00251-4.

Regional Multipliers: A User Handbook for the Regional Input-Output Modeling System (RIMS II), Third Edition. (1997) This handbook describes the five types of RIMS II multipliers that are available for nearly 500 industries and for any county or for any group of counties. It details the information that the users need in order to effectively use the RIMS II multipliers to analyze the economic and industrial impact of public and private projects and programs on State and local areas. The handbook also includes case studies that illustrate the uses of the RIMS II multipliers and a description of the methodology that the Bureau of Economic Analysis uses to estimate the multipliers. $6.00, stock no. 003-010-00264-6.

Foreign Direct Investment in the United States: 1992 Benchmark Survey, Final Results. (1995) Presents detailed data on the financial structure and operations of U.S. affiliates of foreign direct investors, on the foreign direct investment position in the United States, and on the balance-of-payments transactions between U.S. affiliates and their foreign parent companies in 1992.
