

Small Business Profile: NEW MEXICO

Small businesses make a significant contribution to the U.S. economy, and in 2003, they were the engine of New Mexico's economic performance. Nationally, half of U.S. non-farm private output and employment is generated by small firms with 500 or fewer employees; in New Mexico, small business owners—including women, minorities, and home based individuals—were leaders in the state's economy in 2003. The Office of Advocacy's Small Business Profile reports on small businesses in the state using the most currently available data.

Number of Businesses. The estimated total number of small businesses in New Mexico in 2003 was 140,600.¹ Of the 41,731 employer firms in 2003, 96.1 percent or an estimated 40,100 were small firms. The estimated number of employer businesses decreased by 0.8 percent in 2003. The most recent data available show that non-employer businesses numbered 100,502 in 2001. Self-employment increased by 7.1 percent, from 73,243 in 2002 to 78,447 in 2003. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau; U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics.)

Women-Owned Businesses. Self-employment by women increased by 14.1 percent, from 31,370 in 2002 to 35,781 in 2003 and represented 43.9 percent of self-employed persons in the state. Women-owned businesses generated $4.4 billion in revenues, employed 48,236 workers, and constituted 38,700 firms or 29.4 percent of all firms in 1997. (Sources: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

Minority-Owned Businesses. In 1997, 22.1 percent or 8,300 of the minority-owned businesses in the state were employer firms, and they generated 86.2 percent of the total minority-owned business revenue of $4.9 billion. There were 28,300 Hispanic-owned businesses; 1,100 Black-owned businesses; 2,500 Asian and Pacific Islander-owned businesses; and 6,800 American Indian and Alaskan Native-owned businesses in 1997. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

Business Turnover. The estimated number of new employer businesses was 5,508 in 2003, which is 4.3 percent more than the previous year. Business bankruptcies increased by 11.7 percent, and totaled 774 in 2003. Business terminations decreased by 27.4 percent and numbered 5,770 in 2003. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Labor, Employment and Training Administration; Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts; U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau.)

Employment. Small businesses with fewer than 500 employees numbered 33,940 in 2001 and employed 320,440 people or 57.9 percent of the state's non-farm private workforce (Table 1).² Total net employment gain in the state amounted to 3,763 between 2000 and 2001. Of that number, 936 are attributable to MSAs (metropolitan statistical areas). During the same time period, firms with fewer than 20 employees gained 6,317 jobs. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Census Bureau, Statistics of U.S. Businesses. Note: Urban (MSA) and rural (non-MSA) employment data is available at: www.sba.gov/advo/stats/data.html.)

Small Business Income. Small business proprietors' income in 2003 increased by 6.3 percent, from $3.9 billion in 2002 to $4.1 billion in 2003. (Source: U.S. Dept. of Commerce.)

Finance. Small firms typically use commercial bank lenders and rely on local bank services. Over the last five years there has been a gradual decline in the number of banks in New Mexico (Table 3). The Office of Advocacy has identified banks in each state that make the most loans to small businesses. This information is available in its banking studies available at www.sba.gov/advo/stats.

² The number of employers listed in Table 1 is not directly comparable to the figures listed in the Number of Businesses section due to different data sources.
