

Important reminder about EFT payments

Monday, October 8, 2007, is the Columbus Day federal holiday. Any electronic funds transfer (EFT) payments scheduled that day will be deposited on Tuesday, October 9.

DHS schedules EFT payment for the first available banking day. If a payment falls on a weekend or federal holiday, it is moved to the next valid banking day.

For more information

For a list of recognized federal holidays, go to the federal Office of Personnel Management Web site at www.opm.gov/fedhol/index.asp.

