

MMIS Insider update

Revised MMIS implementation and training schedule

To ensure that the replacement MMIS is ready for operations, implementation is now scheduled for September 2008. This means that provider training will not start in April, as announced in our last publication. Instead, training will start in June 2008.

DHS is currently working on a revised training schedule, which we will publish in the next issue of the MMIS Insider and post to the MMIS Provider Resources Web site at www.oregon.gov/DHS/mmis.
