

Public Employees' Benefit Board Commercial Drivers License Exam Eligibility Voucher

This document will provide verification of eligibility for payment of normal medical plan benefits for individuals who are required to have a physical exam (also known as ODOT or CDL physicals) to obtain a Commercial Drivers License as required by their job duties with a State of Oregon agency. This voucher covers the exam only. It does not cover costs of testing for controlled substances.

When an employee is eligible, the agency must:

- 1. Complete this voucher verifying employee eligibility.
- 2. Submit a copy of this voucher to the employee's health insurance company.

Upon receipt of the completed voucher from the agency, the employee must:

1. Schedule an appointment with a medical provider.

Kaiser Health Plan members: contact one of the Occupational Health Clinics listed on the reverse of this document.

Providence Choice Plan members: contact your medical home clinic.

Regence BCBSO and Samaritan Select Plan members: contact your medical provider.

- 2. Take the completed voucher to the medical provider performing the examination.
- 3. Pay the appropriate co-payment or coinsurance.
- 4. Ask the medical provider to attach the voucher to the claim billing.
