

OREGON COASTAL COHO PROJECT

Stakeholder Team

December 8, 2005

9:30 am - 4:30 pm

Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife
Southwest Region Office Conference Room
4192 North Umpqua Hwy Roseburg OR
541-440-3353

AGENDA

Goal: Provide a format and set of issues that stimulates an energized and informative dialogue among the stakeholder team which leads to agreement about a future-oriented conservation plan

- 9:30 Welcome & Introductions—Donna Silverberg, Facilitator
- 9:45 Comments on November 14 & 15 Meeting Summary--Group
Follow-up from Rockaway Beach meeting:
- NOAA's Progress Report on Plan
- 10:15 Additional feedback on Mid-Coast Populations outline
- 11:30 Presentation and Feedback on ODFW's draft "Draft of the South-Coast Populations (and any other info in draft form
- 12:00 Break for lunch
- 12:30 Small group discussions of the information to hone ideas and formulate discussion, followed by large group discussion of the draft. What, if anything, is needed to reach agreement on concepts for inclusion in the conservation plan?
- 1:15 Public Comment
- 1:30 Desired Status for Coastal Coho: Follow-up on conversations, feedback from constituents
- 3:50 Wrap Up
- Next meeting date & location: January ?-- Lincoln City? Salishan? Depot Bay?
 - Agenda items to include:
 - Review Drafts of North Coast populations & Lakes populations,
 - presentation on gravel extraction & municipalities
 - wrap-up on forestry questions,
 - finalize desired status,
 - NOAA decision,
 - update on schedule for stakeholder team & production of conservation plan
- 4:30 Adjourn

Thank you for your interest and participation in this process!