FINAL JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION

Plaintiff, the United States of America, has filed a Complaint for Permanent Injunction against defendant John F. Poseley. The United States and Poseley have filed a "Stipulation of Permanent Injunction" as follows:

Poseley waives the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 52 and Internal Revenue Code (I.R.C.) (26 U.S.C.) §§ 7402(a) and 7408.

Poseley consents to entry of this Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction without admitting that grounds exist for imposition of an injunction. Poseley

1 enters into this Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction voluntarily and waives
2 any right he may have to appeal from it.

3 Poseley consents to entry of Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction, based 4 on the following terms, without further notice and agrees that this Court shall 5 retain jurisdiction over him for the purpose of implementing and enforcing the
6 Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction.

7 Accordingly,

8 IT IS ORDERED that:

9 1. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1340
10 and 1345 and I.R.C. §§ 7402(a) and 7408.

11 2. The Court finds that the tax-fraud schemes promoted by Poseley as
12 described in the Complaint violate various provisions of the Internal Revenue
13 Code.

14 3. The Court finds that Poseley consents to the entry of this injunction.

15 4. It is further ORDERED that Poseley, individually and doing business
16 under any other name or using any other entity, and his representatives, agents,
17 servants, employees, attorneys, and anyone in active concert or participation with 18 him, is permanently enjoined and restrained from, directly or indirectly:

19 (a) Making representations, in connection with the organization or sale of 20 any tax shelter, plan, or arrangement, that:

21 (1) Pure Trusts have no tax return filing or payment requirements,
22 and are tax-exempt regardless of their activities;

23 (2) individuals can assign their income to Pure Trusts and eliminate
24 their income tax return filing and payment requirements while retaining control
25 over the assets and income;

26 (3) Pure Trusts operate outside the jurisdiction of the United States;
27 and

1 (4) individuals can voluntarily withdraw from filing income tax
2 returns or paying federal taxes by rescinding their Social Security number;

3 (b) Selling services or products designed to assist customers to evade
4 reporting, filing, and paying taxes, including:

5 (1) preparing and selling documents purporting to create Pure Trusts
6 for individuals;

7 (2) obstructing or advising or assisting anyone to obstruct, IRS
8 examinations, collection actions, or other IRS actions;

9 (3) advising anyone that he or she is not required to file federal tax
10 returns or pay federal taxes;

11 (4) instructing, advising, or assisting anyone to stop withholding
12 federal employment taxes from wages;

13 (5) selling or distributing any promotional materials containing false
14 commercial speech regarding the internal revenue laws or speech likely to incite
15 others imminently to violate the internal revenue laws;

16 (c) Organizing (or assisting in organizing) or participating, directly or 17 indirectly, in the sale of any interest in any entity, plan, or arrangement, including 18 but not limited to those discussed above, that incites or assists customers to attempt 19 to violate the internal revenue laws or unlawfully evade the assessment or 20 collection of their federal tax liabilities or unlawfully claim improper tax refunds;

21 (d) Engaging in activity subject to penalty under 26 U.S.C. § 6700,
22 including making, in connection with the organization or sale of any plan or 23 arrangement, any statement about the securing of any tax benefit that the defendant
24 knows or has reason to know is false as to any material matter;

25 (e) Engaging in conduct subject to penalty under any provision of the 26 Internal Revenue Code, or engaging in any other conduct that interferes with the 27 administration and enforcement of the internal revenue laws; and

1 (f) Misrepresenting the terms of this injunction.

2 5. It is further ORDERED that the United States is permitted to engage in
3 post-judgment discovery to ensure compliance with this permanent injunction.

4 6. It is further ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction over this
5 action for the purpose of implementing and enforcing this Final Judgment of 6 Permanent Injunction.
