

Notice

Oregon law allows a dealer occupying 5,000 or more square feet to refuse to accept:

1. Beverage containers visibly containing or contaminated by a substance other than water, residue of the original contents or ordinary dust;

2. More than 144 individual beverage containers from any one person during one day;

or

3. Beverage containers that are damaged to the extent that the brand appearing on the container cannot be identified.

For dealers occupying 5,000 or more square feet

ORS 459A.715(3)(a)

