

Checklist for the Narrative Account

- Use what you learned from the maps, the interviews, the demographic data, and the video as you are writing your narrative account.
- Support your opinions with evidence from what you have read and seen.
- Describe how living in the Dominican Republic would be similar to and different from living in the United States.
- Explain what else you would want to know about life in the Dominican Republic in preparation for your experience there.
- Remember that your report will be used to help others who are going to the Dominican Republic.
