A BILL

To amend the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Fannie Lou Hamer,
5 Rosa Parks, and Coretta Scott King Voting Rights Act
6 Reauthorization and Amendments Act of 2006”.

7 SEC. 2. CONGRESSIONAL PURPOSE AND FINDINGS.

8 (a) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this Act is to ensure 9 that the right of all citizens to vote, including the right

1 to register to vote and cast meaningful votes, is preserved
2 and protected as guaranteed by the Constitution.

3 (b) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds the following:

4 (1) Significant progress has been made in elimi-
5 nating first generation barriers experienced by mi-
6 nority voters, including increased numbers of reg-
7 istered minority voters, minority voter turnout, and 8 minority representation in Congress, State legisla-
9 tures, and local elected offices. This progress is the 10 direct result of the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

11 (2) However, vestiges of discrimination in vot-
12 ing continue to exist as demonstrated by second gen-
13 eration barriers constructed to prevent minority vot-
14 ers from fully participating in the electoral process.

15 (3) The continued pervasiveness of racially po-
16 larized voting in each of the jurisdictions covered by 17 the expiring provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 18 1965 demonstrates that racial and language minori-
19 ties remain politically vulnerable, warranting the 20 continued protection of the Voting Rights Act of 21 1965.

22 (4) Evidence of continued discrimination
23 includes—

24 (A) the hundreds of objections interposed,
25 requests for more information submitted fol-

1           lowed by voting changes withdrawn from con-
2           sideration by jurisdictions covered by the Voting
3           Rights Act of 1965, and section 5 enforcement
4           actions undertaken by the Department of Jus-
5           tice in covered jurisdictions since 1982 that 6           prevented election practices, such as annex-
7           ation, at-large voting, and the use of multi-8           member districts, from being enacted to dilute
9           minority voting strength;

10                   (B) the number of requests for declaratory
11           judgments denied by the United States District
12           Court for the District of Columbia;

13                   (C) the continued filing of section 2 cases 14           that originated in covered jurisdictions; and

15                   (D) the litigation pursued by the Depart-
16           ment of Justice since 1982 to enforce sections 17           4(e), 4(f)(4), and 203 of such Act to ensure 18           that all language minority citizens have full ac-
19           cess to the political process.

20                   (5) The evidence clearly shows the continued
21           need for Federal oversight in jurisdictions covered 22           by the Voting Rights Act of 1965 since 1982, as 23           demonstrated in the counties certified by the Attor-
24           ney General for Federal examiner and observer cov-
25           erage and the tens of thousands of Federal observers

1 that have been dispatched to observe elections in 2 covered jurisdictions.

3 (6) The effectiveness of the Voting Rights Act
4 of 1965 has been significantly weakened by the 5 United States Supreme Court decisions in Reno v.
6 Bossier Parish II and Georgia v. Ashcroft, which 7 have misconstrued Congress' original intent in en-
8 acting the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and narrowed
9 the protections afforded by section 5 of such Act.

10 (7) Despite the progress made by minorities
11 under the Voting Rights Act of 1965, the evidence 12 before Congress reveals that 40 years has not been 13 a sufficient amount of time to eliminate the vestiges
14 of discrimination following nearly 100 years of dis-
15 regard for the dictates of the 15th amendment and 16 to ensure that the right of all citizens to vote is pro-
17 tected as guaranteed by the Constitution.

18 (8) Present day discrimination experienced by 19 racial and language minority voters is contained in 20 evidence, including the objections interposed by the 21 Department of Justice in covered jurisdictions; the 22 section 2 litigation filed to prevent dilutive tech-23 niques from adversely affecting minority voters; the 24 enforcement actions filed to protect language minori-
25 ties; and the tens of thousands of Federal observers

1       dispatched to monitor polls in jurisdictions covered
2       by the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

3           (9) The record compiled by Congress dem-
4       onstrates that, without the continuation of the Vot-
5       ing Rights Act of 1965 protections, racial and lan-
6       guage minority citizens' will be deprived of the op-
7       portunity to exercise their right to vote, or will have 8       their votes diluted, undermining the significant gains
9       made by minorities in the last 40 years.

10 SEC. 3. CHANGES RELATING TO USE OF EXAMINERS AND 11 OBSERVERS.

12       (a) USE OF OBSERVERS.—Section 8 of the Voting
13 Rights Act of 1965 (42 U.S.C. 1973f) is amended to read

3           to vote under the color of law on account of 4           race or color, or in contravention of the guaran-
5           tees set forth in section 4(f)(2) are likely to 6           occur; or

7                   “(B) in the Attorney General’s judgment 8           (considering, among other factors, whether the 9           ratio of nonwhite persons to white persons reg-
10          istered to vote within such subdivision appears
11          to the Attorney General to be reasonably attrib-
12          utable to violations of the 14th or 15th amend-13          ment or whether substantial evidence exists that 14          bona fide efforts are being made within such 15          subdivision to comply with the 14th or 15th 16          amendment), the assignment of observers is 17          otherwise necessary to enforce the guarantees

2 ered employment for the purposes of any statute adminis-
