

Volunteers needed on National Public Lands Day

September 27, 2008

Volunteers are invited to Pitch-in on a Public Lands Day Project on the Logan Ranger District on Saturday the 27th of September.

Mountain Man Rendezvous Fence Project

Volunteers are needed to help build a fence to protect the riparian area and to help keep visitors on designated trails and roads. Volunteers should meet at the Mt. Man Rendezvous site, located in Left Hand Fork of Blacksmith Fork Canyon at 09:30 A.M. and wear sturdy shoes, long pants, a long sleeve shirt and leather work gloves. Volunteers will need to bring water and lunch with them and if available a hammer and/or a battery powered drill.

To volunteer, please contact the Logan Ranger District Office at (435)-755-3620
