U.S. Department of Energy Office of Scientific and Technical Information 60th Anniversary

Founded in rich, historical traditions as strong as the mighty oaks for which our city was named, and building on decades of new ideas and inspirations that have forever changed the world in which we live, generations of people have left their mark on Oak Ridge.

Oak Ridge-Generations of Innovations, an initiative of the Oak Ridge Chamber of Commerce, celebrates the collective contributions of those organizations and individuals who pioneer positive change in our city and beyond through creativity, ingenuity, and personal sacrifice.

WHEREAS the U. S. Department of Energy's Office of Scientific and Technical Information is celebrating its 60th Anniversary in September 2007;

WHEREAS the establishment in 1947 showed the Atomic Energy Commission's commitment to collecting, preserving, and disseminating science information for the advancement of discovery;

WHEREAS the Office of Scientific and Technical Information has for 60 years advanced science and sustained technological creativity by making quality science content available and useful to Department of Energy researchers and the American people;

WHEREAS the Office of Scientific and Technical Information has brought broad recognition to the City of Oak Ridge through its growth from a small Manhattan Project-era technical information center to a world-renowned scientific and technical information resource;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Oak Ridge Chamber of Commerce, Oak Ridge, Tennessee, offers our enthusiastic congratulations and appreciation to the U.S. Department of Energy Office of Scientific and Technical Information for 60 years of commitment to the Oak Ridge community and its quality of life.

Adopted this 18th day of September, 2007.
