

I just wanted to weigh in on the Centennial Airport noise issue (or non-issue). Having lived in Greenwood Village for a while now, I can tell you that the airport is hardly noticeable from where I live. I think that banning aircraft would definitely be detrimental economically for the area. Additionally, a Noise Office, as proposed would be a complete waste of money, no matter who is paying for it.

I fully support no changes to the airport and airspace.

Dan Hallenbeck
8899 E. Prentice Ave #8305
Greenwood Village, CO 80111
halleng@hotmail.com