

As a Lone Tree resident for 6 years, I must admit there is a lot more airplane noise than there was when I first moved here. I know there are ways to reduce this. I think changing the flight patterns so they don't bank west over neighborhoods would be a tremendous solution. Make them go further south 4 miles or so before they bank west would greatly reduce any most of the noise. Thank-you for listening and hopefully we can come to resolution.

Frank Ingram

Murray Motor Imports

4320 E Kentucky Ave

Denver CO 80246

Direct 303.639.7934

Toll Free 800.571.5254

frankingram@murraymotors.com