

I would like to provide feedback about air traffic noise over Castle Pines North. There have been a number of instances of multi-engine prop or turboprop aircraft flying over CPN between 11 PM and 1 AM. The noise generated during the flyover is loud enough that it is easily heard inside a residence even above the ambient household noise (from TV or radio).

Thank you,

Keith Grant