Questions

After the students have completed their observations, ask them to come together to present their findings.

1) Based on the information collected and the standards we are given, is this a healthy stream?

2) What can be done to improve or preserve this stream?

