Description of Program: Under the authority of section 1202(a)(1)(C) of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), the Assistant Secretary of Elementary and Secondary Education (Assistant Secretary) awards grants to eligible applicants for projects that—

(1) Improve the educational opportunities of low-income families by integrating early childhood education, adult literacy or adult basic education, and parenting education into a unified family literacy program for federally recognized Indian tribe and tribal organization projects;

(2) Are implemented through cooperative activities that build on existing community resources to create a new range of services for federally recognized Indian tribe and tribal organization projects;

(3) Promote achievement of the National Education Goals one, three, five, and eight that address school readiness, student achievement, adult literacy, and parent involvement in the education of their children; and

(4) Assist children and adults to achieve to challenging State content standards and challenging State student performance standards.

Eligible participants. Eligible participants are children and their parents who also meet the following conditions specified in section 1206(a) of the ESEA:

(1) The parent or parents must be eligible for participation in an adult education program under the Adult Education Act; or

(2) For a parent or parents within the State's compulsory school attendance age range, a local educational agency must provide (or ensure the availability of) the basic education component; and

(3) The child or children must be younger than eight years of age.

Note: Family members of eligible participants described in paragraphs one through three, above, also may participate in Even Start Family Literacy Program activities when appropriate to serve Even Start purposes. In addition, section 1206(b) of the ESEA generally permits families to remain eligible for Even Start Family Literacy services until all family members become ineligible for participation. For example, in the case of a family in which the parent or parents have become ineligible due to educational advancement, eligibility would continue until all children in the family reach age eight. If all children in a family have reached the age of eight, the family continues to be eligible for two more years, or until the parents no longer are eligible for adult education under the Adult Education Act, whichever occurs earlier.

Budget period. Under 34 CFR 75.112 and 75.117, an eligible applicant must propose a project period (up to four years) and provide budgetary information for each year of that proposed project period in its initial application. The budgetary information provided should include, for each year, an amount for each key project component with an accompanying breakdown of any subcomponents. A written justification for all requested amounts should be provided.

An applicant is also required under 34 CFR 75.112(b) to describe how and when, in each budget period of the project, it plans to meet each objective of the project.

Note: This information will be used by the Assistant Secretary, in conjunction with the grantee's annual performance report required under 34 CFR 75.118(a), to determine whether to make a continuation award for the subsequent budget year. Under 34 CFR 75.253 a grantee may receive a continuation award only if it demonstrates that it either has made substantial progress toward meeting the objectives of the approved project, or has received the Assistant Secretary's approval of changes in the project to enable it to meet the objectives in the succeeding budget periods.

Federal and local funding. An Even Start Family Literacy project's funding is comprised of both a Federal portion of funds (Federal share) and a portion contributed by the eligible applicant (local project share). The local share of the project may be provided in cash or in kind and may be obtained from any source, including other Federal programs funded by the ESEA. The Federal share of the project may not exceed—

- 90 percent of the total cost of the project in the first year;
- 80 percent in the second year;
- 70 percent in the third year;
- 60 percent in the fourth year; and
- 50 percent in any subsequent year.

The Federal share for any grantee receiving a grant for a second grant cycle may not exceed 50 percent. Any grantee that wishes to reapply for a second grant cycle at the end of its first project period (up to 4 years) must recomplete for funding with new applicants.

Indirect costs. Even Start Family Literacy Program funds generally may not be used for the indirect costs of a project. Recipients of an Even Start Indian tribe and tribal organization grant may request the Secretary to waive this requirement. To obtain a waiver, however, the recipient must demonstrate to the Secretary's satisfaction that the recipient otherwise would not be able to participate in the Even Start Family Literacy Program.

National and Local Evaluations: The Department is conducting a national evaluation of Even Start Family Literacy projects. Grantees are required to participate in the Department's national evaluation and to conduct a separate independent local evaluation consistent with the grantee's responsibilities under 34 CFR 75.590.

The Even Start Family Literacy Program has a set of performance indicators developed for use in managing and reporting purposes. These indicators, which follow this application notice, have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget and shared with the Congress. Applicants are encouraged to use these indicators as a framework when developing their programs.

The Secretary suggests that each applicant budget for evaluation activities as follows: a project with an estimated cost of up to $120,000 should designate $5,000 for this purpose; a project with an estimated cost of over $120,000 should designate $10,000 for these activities. These funds will be used for expenditures related to the collection and aggregation of data required for the Department's national evaluation. The Secretary also recommends that projects budget for the cost of travel to Washington, DC, and two nights' lodging for the project director and the project evaluator, for their participation in annual evaluation meetings.

Technical Assistance: The Department holds annual technical assistance conferences for professional development. Grantees are strongly encouraged to participate in these conferences.

The Secretary suggests that each applicant budget $2,000 each year for these activities. These funds should cover the cost of travel to the West Coast, and two nights' lodging for the project director and one staff member, for their participation in annual technical assistance conferences.

Selection Criteria: The Secretary uses the following selection criteria to evaluate applications for grants under this competition.

(1) The maximum composite score for all of these criteria is 100 points.

(2) The maximum score for each criterion is indicated in parentheses.

(a) Meeting the purposes of the authorizing statute. (10 points). The Secretary considers how well the project will meet the purpose of the Even Start Family Literacy Program for federally recognized Indian tribes and tribal organizations, which under sections 1201 and 1202(a)(1)(C) of the ESEA is to help break the cycle of poverty and illiteracy by awarding grants for projects that—

- Are implemented through cooperative projects that build on existing community resources to create a new range of services for Indian tribe and tribal organization projects;

- Promote achievement of the National Education Goals; and

- Assist children and adults from low-income families to achieve to challenging State content standards and challenging State student performance standards.

(b) Need for project. (15 points). The Secretary considers the need for the proposed project. In determining the need for the proposed project, the Secretary considers the following factors:

(i) The magnitude of the need for the services to be provided or the activities to be carried out by the proposed project.

(ii) The extent to which specific gaps or weaknesses in services, infrastructure, or opportunities have been identified and will be addressed by the proposed project, including the nature and magnitude of those gaps or weaknesses.

Note: The Secretary invites applicants to address such factors as the following: the number of families in the area who need Even Start services, the lack of availability of comprehensive family literacy services for that population, other resources that will be used to benefit project participants, and any other factors that the applicant considers relevant to the extent of need for the project.

(c) Significance. (10 points). The Secretary considers the significance of the proposed project. In determining the significance of the proposed project, the Secretary considers the following factors:

(i) The extent to which the proposed project involves the development or demonstration of promising new strategies that build on, or are alternatives to, existing strategies.

(ii) The potential replicability of the proposed project or strategies, including, as appropriate, the potential for implementation in a variety of settings.

(iii) The importance or magnitude of the results or outcomes likely to be attained by the proposed project.

- Child care for the period that parents are involved in the project; and

- Transportation to enable parents and their children to participate in the project.

An eligible applicant must provide an increasing local project share over the grant period (at least the following amounts: 10% in the first year, 20% in the second year, 30% in the third year, and 40% in the fourth year), as required by section 1204(b) of the ESEA. In addressing adequacy of resources, the Secretary invites applicants to describe the resources that they will use to increase the amount of the local project's share over the four years of the grant, which will contribute to the applicant's ability to sustain the project at the end of the Federal funding.

(ii) The extent to which the costs are reasonable in relation to the objectives, design, and potential significance of the proposed project.

Instructions for the Application Narrative

Before preparing the Application Narrative an applicant should read carefully the description of the program and the selection criteria the Secretary uses to evaluate applications.

The narrative should encompass each function or activity for which funds are being requested and should—

1. Begin with an Abstract; that is, a summary of the proposed project;
2. Describe the proposed project in light of the selection criteria in the order in which the criteria are listed in this application package; and
3. Provide the following in response to the attached "Notice to all Applicants": (1) a reference to the portion of the application in which information appears as to how the applicant is addressing steps to promote equitable access and participation, or (2) a separate statement that contains that information.

4. Provide a copy of the signed set of assurances specified in section 14306(a) of the ESEA (20 U.S.C. 8856(a)) that the applicant has filed with its SEA and that is applicable to this grant application.

The Secretary strongly requests the applicant to limit the Application Narrative to no more than 20 double-spaced, typed pages (on one side only), although the Secretary will consider applications of greater length. The Department has found that successful applications for similar programs generally meet this page limit.

Instructions for Estimated Public Reporting Burden

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control Number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1810-0540. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to average 15 hours per response, including the time to review instructions, search existing data resources, gather and maintain the data needed, and complete and review the information collection. If you have any comments concerning the accuracy of the time estimate or suggestions for improving this form, please write to: U.S. Department of Education, Washington, D.C. 20202-4651. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, write directly to: Patricia McKee, Compensatory Education Programs, Office of Elementary and Secondary Education, U.S. Department of Education, 600 Independence Avenue, SW, Room 4400, Portals Building, Washington D.C. 20202-6132.

Notice to All Applicants

Thank you for your interest in this program. The purpose of this enclosure is to inform you about a new provision in the Department of Education's General Education Provisions Act (GEPA) that applies to applicants for new grant awards under Department programs. This provision is section 427 of GEPA, enacted as part of the Improving America's Schools Act of 1994 (Pub. L. 103-382).

To Whom Does This Provision Apply?

Section 427 of GEPA affects applicants for new discretionary grant awards under this program. All Applicants for New Awards Must Include Information in Their Applications To Address This New Provision in Order To Receive Funding Under This Program.

What Does This Provision Require?

Section 427 requires each applicant for funds (other than an individual person) to include in its application a description of the steps the applicant proposes to take to ensure equitable access to, and participation in, its federally assisted program for students, teachers, and other program beneficiaries with special needs.

This section allows applicants discretion in developing the required description. The statute highlights six types of barriers that can impede equitable access or participation that you may address: gender, race, national origin, color, disability, or age. Based on local circumstances, you can determine whether these or other barriers may prevent your students, teachers, etc. from equitable access or participation. Your description need not be lengthy; you may provide a clear and succinct description of how you plan to address those barriers that are applicable to your circumstances. In addition, the information may be provided in a single narrative, or, if appropriate, may be discussed in connection with related topics in the application.

Section 427 is not intended to duplicate the requirements of civil rights statutes, but rather to ensure that, in designing their projects, applicants for Federal funds address equity concerns that may affect the ability of certain potential beneficiaries to fully participate in the project and to achieve to high standards. Consistent with program requirements and its approved application, an applicant may use the Federal funds awarded to it to eliminate barriers it identifies.

What are Examples of How an Applicant Might Satisfy the Requirement of This Provision?

The following examples may help illustrate how an applicant may comply with section 427.

(1) An applicant that proposes to carry out an adult literacy project serving, among others, adults with limited English proficiency, might describe in its application how it intends to distribute a brochure about the proposed project to such potential participants in their native language.

(2) An applicant that proposes to develop instructional materials for classroom use might describe how it will make the materials available on audio tape or in braille for students who are blind.

(3) An applicant that proposes to carry out a model science program for secondary students and is concerned that girls may be less likely than boys to enroll in the course, might indicate how it tends to conduct "outreach" efforts to girls, to encourage their enrollment.

We recognize that many applicants may already be implementing effective steps to ensure equity of access and participation in their grant programs, and we appreciate your cooperation in responding to the requirements of this provision.

Estimated Burden Statement

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1801-0004 (Exp. 8/31/98). The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to vary from 1 to 3 hours per response, with an average of 1.5 hours, including the time to review instructions, search existing data resources, gather and maintain the data needed, and complete and review the information collection. If you have any comments concerning the accuracy of the time estimate(s) or suggestions for improving this form, please write to: U.S. Department of Education, Washington, DC 20202-4651.

Objectives and Performance Indicators for the Even Start Family Literacy Program

For your information, following are objectives and performance indicators for the Even Start Family Literacy Program (Part B of Title I of the ESEA) that the Department has developed in accordance with the Government Performance and Results Act.

Objective 1. The literacy of participating families will improve.

1.1 Adult literacy achievement. Increasing percentages of adults will achieve significant learning gains on literacy measures. In 1996, 53% of adults achieved and posttest a moderate-to large-sized gain between pretest on a test of functional math skills, 19% on a test of functional reading skills, 17% on a test of math achievement, and 14% on a test of reading achievement.

1.2 Adult educational attainment. Increasing percentages of adults will obtain their high school diploma or equivalent. In 1996, 10% of adults earned a GED since participating in Even Start.

1.3 Children's school readiness and success. Increasing percentages of children participating in Even Start will attain significant gains on measures of school readiness and achievement. In 1996, 80% of children made better than expected gains on a test of school readiness, and 63% achieved moderate to large gains on a test of language development.

1.4 Parenting skills. Increasing percentages of parents will show significant gains on measures of parenting skills, knowledge, and expectations for their children. In 1996, 41% of parents scored 75% or higher correct on the posttest measuring the quality of cognitive stimulation and emotional support provided to children in the home.

Objective 2. Self-sufficiency outcomes of participating families will improve.

2.2 Continuing adult education. Increasing percentages of adults will continue in their education.

Objective 3. Even Start projects will reach their target population of families that are most in need of services.

3.1 Recruitment of most in need. The projects will recruit low-income, disadvantaged families with low literacy levels. In 1996, 71% of families had less than $12,000 in annual income and 47% of parents had less than a ninth grade education at intake.

Objective 4. Local Even Start projects will provide comprehensive instructional and support services of high quality to all families in a cost-effective manner.

4.1 Service hours. Projects will offer increasingly higher levels of service hours annually. In 1996, projects averaged 371 hours of adult education, 201 hours of parenting education, and 530 hours of early childhood education.

4.2 Participation, retention and continuity. Projects will increasingly improve retention and continuity of services. In 1996, 60% of families were expected to continue. The adult education participation national average in 1996 was 114 hours, parenting education, 27 hours.

4.3 Local collaborations. Projects will increasingly promote high-quality, cost-effective collaborations. In 1996, on average, projects had 11 collaborators. Objective 5. The Department of Education will provide effective guidance and technical assistance and will identify and disseminate reliable information on effective approaches.

5.1 Federal technical assistance. An increasing percentage of local project directors will be satisfied with technical assistance and guidance.
