

Approved by: Robert J. Leaverton

Function	Eval. Schedule	Requirement	Type	Source	Summary	Location	Person(s) Responsible for Compliance	Record(s) of Compliance	Record Location
Air	A	Clean Air Act Act of August 7, 1977, as amended (1977 and 1990)	FedStat	42 USC 7401, 7403, 7410, 7416, 7418, 7470, 7472, 7474, 7475, 7491, 7506, 7602	Conduct NF management activities including permitted activities, in a manner that does not result in significant contribution to a violation of (1) National Ambient Air Quality Standards or (2) State Implementation Plans. FS also has an affirmative responsibility to protect the air quality related values of Class I Air Quality areas.	http://www.epa.gov/oar/oaqps/peg_caa/pegcaain.html) (http://www4.law.cornell.edu/uscode/unframed/42/ch85.html)	Forest Air Specialist Forest FMO	Send General conformity determination as applicable to EPA and air pollution control authority; Air pollution control authority approved burn plans and approval to burn on dates of ignition; Federal land manager (RF) letter to EPA to comment on major sources of pollution (PSD permit-related).	Project file in office of line officer; RF letter re: PSD are in correspondence files
Air	B	EPA's General Conformity Regulations	Fed Reg	40 CFR Parts 6, 51, and 93	Requires federal agencies to determine conformity of general federal action to the SIP.	http://epa.gov/ttncaaa1/conform/genconf_00001.pdf
Air	A	Interim Air Quality Policy on Wildland and Prescribed Fires(1998)	EPA Policy		Provides guidance on mitigating air pollution impacts caused by wildland and prescribed fires while recognizing the current role of fire in wildland management. Soil Resources.	http://www.epa.gov/ttn/oaqps/t1/memoranda/firefnl.pdf
Air	C	Air Resource Management	FS Guide	FSM2508	Control and minimize air pollutant impact from land management activities; direction on complying with federal and state law.	http://fsweb.wo.fs.fed.us/directives/fsm/2500/
Air	D	Air Quality State Implementation Plans	Guide		State Implementation Plans (SIPs) are developed by each state to implement the provisions of the Clean Air Act. The SIPs describe the actions the State will take to achieve and maintain the "national ambient air quality standards" (NAAQS). The EPA has established NAAQS for six criteria pollutants that have been determined to be harmful to

Eval. Schedule codes

A = 11/2007

B = 11/2008

C = 11/2009

D = 11/2010

E = 11/2011