ALABAMA EDUCATION DIRECTORY 2008-2009

On the cover:

ACCESS – Alabama Connecting Classrooms, Educators, and Students Statewide – Alabama’s statewide distance learning initiative is ahead of schedule and will provide a 21st century distance learning classroom for every Alabama high school by August 2009.

During the 2008-2009 school year, the Alabama Math, Science, and Technology Initiative (AMSTI) is piloting the first Pre-Kindergarten program in the state that places a strong emphasis on the math and science content areas.

The Alabama Reading Initiative (ARI), the state’s national model reading program, has trained 100 percent of Alabama’s K-3 public schools.

STATE OF ALABAMA • DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION • JOSEPH. B. MORTON, STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION

REVISED 9/29/08

No person shall be denied employment, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination in any program or activity on the basis of disability, sex, race, religion, national origin, color, or age. Ref: Sec. 1983, Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C.; Title VI and VII, Civil Rights Act of 1964; Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Sec. 504; Age Discrimination in Employment Act; Equal Pay Act of 1963; Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972: Title IX Coordinator, P.O. Box 302101, Montgomery, Alabama 36130-2101 or call 334-242-8444.

Information in this directory is based on data submitted by local school officials for the 2008-2009 school year. This department has accepted the material as submitted and compiled it for publication. An online version of this directory is updated periodically and is available at www.alsde.edu.
