Are You Dumping on the Environment?

And Don't Know it?

When you hire a contractor to do a remodeling, painting or landscaping job at your home, do you know where the debris goes after it leaves your property?

Each year, tons of construction and landscaping debris are illegally dumped in streams, parks, ravines, and empty lots. Illegal dumping spoils the beauty of our landscape. It harms people, wildlife and the environment. It also costs taxpayers hundreds of thousands of dollars each year to clean up.

How you can help:

Talk with your Contractor before your project begins and request disposal receipts for all of your project debris. Ask your Contractor to separate materials for reuse and recycling; it can save you money and preserve landfill space!

To report an illegal dumpsite call 206-296-SITE (7483), or to find out what materials can be reused or recycled and where to take them, call the King County Solid Waste Division at 206-296-4466; toll free at 1-800-325-6165, ext. 6-4466; 711 (TTY Relay), Mon – Fri, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Seattle Call the Resource Venture hotline at 206-389-7304 or visit their website at www.resourceventure.org.

Facility Diversion Rates

This provides a snapshot (March 2006) of the facility diversion rates at regional C&D processing facilities. Waste Management and Allied Waste are under contract to King County to report, with documentation, their diversion rate information. Recovery 1 self-reports their monthly diversion information which contains a full break-down of where all of their materials are sent for processing. Diversion rate information is provided to King County on a monthly basis and is processed and posted to the web site at <http://www.metrokc.gov/dnrp/swd/construction-recycling/comingled.asp> on a quarterly basis. Diversion rates for past months are available.

Regional C&D (Recycling Compliant*) Facilities & their Current Diversion Rates

– as Reported to King County (March 2006)

Facility Name	Facility Diversion Rate ¹	Appropriate for Processing (LEED ² Accepted) Diversion Rate ³	Percentage of Diverted Materials Recycled ⁴	Percentages of Diverted Materials to Beneficial Use ⁴
				Hog Fuel	ADC
Waste Management – Cascade Recycling Center	26.70%	73.40%	63.30%	36.70%	0%
Waste Management – Eastmont Recycling Center	28.80%	80.00%	90.20%	9.80%	0%
Waste Management – Recycling Northwest	0.60%	41.80%	36.40%	63.60%	0%
Recovery 1	99.94%	98.01%	10.94%	69.70%	19.36%

Regional C&D (Non-recycling Compliant*) Facilities & their Current Diversion Rates

– as Reported to King County (March 2006)

Facility Name	Facility Diversion Rate ¹	Appropriate for Processing (LEED Accepted) Diversion Rate ³	Percentage of Diverted Materials Recycled ⁴	Percentages of Diverted Materials to Beneficial Use ⁴
Allied Waste – Black River	0%	0%	0%	0%	0%
Allied Waste – 3rd & Lander	1.20%	3.90%	100%	0%	0%

* A C&D Recycling Compliant Facility is one at which the tonnage of all C&D Waste that the facility diverts (for recycling or beneficial use) in a month is at least forty (40) percent of the Inbound Tons Appropriate for Processing.

1 This rate that will apply to any loads accepted at a facility as "mixed C&D" or "C&D waste". These loads are normally charged a higher rate. Calculations are based on total materials entering the facility (from both King County and non-King County sources).

2 LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Green Building Rating System™ is the nationally accepted benchmark for the design, construction, and operation of high performance green buildings

3 This rate that will apply to any loads accepted at a facility as "C&D recycling" or "C&D appropriate for processing". These rates are accepted by LEED reviewers when tip receipts show the material was accepted for diversion or recycling. These loads are normally charged a lower rate. Calculations are based on materials entering the facility (from both King County and non-King County sources) which are accepted at the facility as appropriate for processing.

4 Calculations are based on all materials diverted by the facility for use as a resource.

Report Illegal Dumping

Illegal dumping is a serious and persistent problem in King County. Each year tons of construction debris (wood waste, roofing, concrete), landscaping and yard waste are dumped into forests, streams, ravines and empty lots. The dumped materials cause erosion, contaminate wells, water tables and surface waters, attract pests, create fire hazards and detract from the beauty of our natural areas. In addition, cleanup and disposal of illegally dumped materials cost Washington State taxpayers hundreds of thousands of dollars each year. If you see illegally dumped materials, please report it.

C&D Disposal at King County Solid Waste Division Facilities

Customers using dump bed vehicles may not dispose of construction and demolition debris at SWD Transfer Stations. Small amounts of C&D (less than 10 percent by volume) that are part of a large load of garbage will be accepted with the following constraints:

- ❖ Materials may not be longer than eight feet in length
- ❖ Bulky items, such as concrete blocks, must be no greater than 2 feet by 2 feet by 2 feet (2 cubic feet), and weight less than 200 pounds
- ❖ If pulling a trailer, total length from bumper to bumper may not exceed 30 feet except at the Bow Lake and Enumclaw transfer stations, where a combined length of 45 feet may be accommodated.

For information on King County Solid Waste Division transfer station locations, hours of operation, and C&D acceptance restrictions, please call: 206-296-4466 or visit: <http://www.metrokc.gov/dnrp/swd/facilities/transfer.asp>

Setting Up A Job-Site Recycling Program

Rising landfill fees have made disposal of construction, demolition and landclearing debris a significant expense. Reducing the amount of material going for disposal lowers the cost of doing business.

Identify Recyclables

Asphalt, concrete, cardboard, new drywall, scrap metals and wood are easy to recycle in King County. Recycling options also exist for asphalt roofing, fluorescent lighting, carpet, and carpet padding, ceiling tiles, film plastic and others. Don't forget to set up recycling for beverage containers and paper from the job shack.

Choose a Recycling Method

There are three basic approaches to job-site recycling:

- ❖ Contract with a recycling hauler who accepts commingled C&D materials. This service allows contractors to put multiple recyclables such as wood, cardboard and metals in one container. The recycling company takes the materials to a sorting facility where the materials are separated for recycling. Materials not accepted in commingled loads will still need to be source-separated. Garbage should go in separate container.
- ❖ Separate recyclables at the source for recycling. This method involves collecting recyclables in separate containers as they are generated. The recycling hauler takes the materials directly to a recycler or a transfer site. Materials not accepted in commingled recycling, such as carpet or ceiling-tile, must be source-separated for recycling.
- ❖ Self-haul your recyclables. Source-separate recyclables in piles or containers on-site and haul them yourself to local recyclers or transfer sites. You may be able to drop off commingled loads at a recycling company. Call companies listed in this directory to confirm.

Select A Recycler

Specify the following in an agreement with them if you choose a contract waste recycling hauler:

- ❖ Which materials will be recycled
- ❖ Requirement that weight or volume of recyclables be documented
- ❖ Requirement that material will go to a properly permitted facility
- ❖ Costs associated with the service (fees for container rental, hauling, recycling charges)
- ❖ Schedule for picking up containers
- ❖ How containers will be labeled

Involve Subcontractors

- ❖ Include language in sub-contractor agreements that they will recycle
- ❖ Discuss the recycling program at every safety meeting or other regular meetings

Monitor the Program

- ❖ Check dumpsters regularly to make sure material is getting separated properly

Determine Savings

- ❖ Calculate the cost savings from recycling versus disposal using documentation from your hauler

Waste Breakdown For Home Construction

According to the National Association of Home Builders, this is the estimated waste generated during the construction of a 2,000-square-foot home:

Wood	3,000 pounds (11 cubic yards)
Drywall	2,000 pounds (6 cubic yards)
Masonry	1,000 pounds (1 cubic yard)
Cardboard	600 pounds (20 cubic yards)
Metal	150 pounds (1 cubic yard)
Vinyl	150 pounds (1 cubic yard)

Fiberglass

Fiberglass consists of flexible fragments of spun or woven glass and is often found in insulating materials. It can also be coated with resins and molded into items such as pools or spas. Fiberglass is rarely actually recycled though fiberglass insulation batts are sometimes reused if removed carefully during a salvage/deconstruction project. Refer to the salvage section for contacts.

No regional recycling options are currently known to exist for this material.

Hazardous Materials

For information on how to properly dispose of hazardous materials, such as asbestos, refrigerants, etc., and to find out which businesses can process these materials, please contact the King County Business Waste Line at 206-296-3976 or access the Yellow Book Hazardous Waste Directory via the web at www.govlink.org/hazwaste/business.

Seattle residents: Call 206-684-3000 for customer service. Call 206-684-8400 for Garbage & Services.

Household Hazardous Waste only.

Insulation

Insulation comes in many different forms. The most common, fiberglass, consists of flexible fragments of spun or woven glass formed into batts though it is sometimes also blown. Cellulose insulation is also very common and usually consists of shredded newspaper mixed with a binder and fire retardant.

Another type of insulation, vermiculite insulation, is a pebble-like, pour-in product that is light-brown or gold in color. Vermiculite attic insulation sometimes contains asbestos fibers. Left undisturbed, vermiculite should not pose a risk. Homeowners should not disturb vermiculite attic insulation and should limit trips to the attic if this type of insulation is present.

No regional recycling options are known to exist at this time.

The ReUse People of America (TRP) is an environmental agency whose charter it is to keep reusable building materials out of our landfills and distribute them for reuse. We have TRP-certified deconstruction contractors who completely deconstruct buildings to our specifications. TRP is a sponsor of the Northwest Ecobuilding Guild, a member of the United States Green Building Council and the Building Materials Reuse Association. We have additional offices in California (Oakland, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego) and Boulder, Colorado.
