

Questions?

How are Junior Reef Rangers selected?

Selection for the camp is based on random selection. Children going into the 5th or 6th grade who are comfortable swimmers are eligible to apply.

Have I completed and turned in all the necessary forms?

Forms you should have completed are The Junior Reef Rangers Health /Registration form.

What is the deadline to turn in my forms?

Forms should be submitted on or before July 18th, 2pm to the War in the Pacific office located on the 2nd floor of the Casa de Espana building in Agana.

How can I contact my camper in the event of an emergency?

In the event of an emergency you may contact park ecologist Mark Capone at 671-688-9773.

What happens if my child becomes ill while at camp?

In the event your child becomes ill one of our staff members will contact the parent/legal guardian and he or she and they will be sent home.

What should I pack for my child to bring to camp?

Refer to the "What Should I Bring to Junior Reef Ranger Camp" List

Are there guidelines for clothing?

Campers should wear cool clothing with shoes that completely cover their feet. Clothing should be appropriate for outdoor activities.

Where is Check-In and Pick-up?

Check-in will be at the War in the Pacific Park in Asan, the picnic table closest to the parking lot. Be on the look out for a canopy.

Are there any items my child should NOT BRING to camp?

Refer to the "What Should I Bring to Junior Reef Ranger Camp" list

May my child bring food to camp?

Your child may bring snacks and beverages.

You must provide a sack lunch for your child, the camp will not be providing lunch.