

Unbelted friends can become your worst enemies.

In a crash, a person without a safety belt becomes a high-speed and deadly projectile. So even if you buckle up, your unbelted friends can slam into you and kill you – or seriously hurt others in your vehicle. Make sure everyone buckles up, every time. Because you never know what's around the next corner.

CLICK IT OR TICKET!

Buckle Up. The Way to Go. Transportation Safety — ODOT