EXECUTIVE CHAMBERS
HONOLULU

MESSAGE FROM GOVERNOR BENJAMIN J. CAYETANO

On behalf of the people of the State of Hawaii, I would like to congratulate the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce for publishing the second edition of the Japanese Companies Registered to do Business in Hawaii directory.

Hawaii welcomes Japanese investments to the islands and appreciates the companies that are located here for their involvement and contributions to the Hawaii-Japan relationship. Historically, our two regions have enjoyed strong cultural and economic ties that have benefited our societies.

The companies represented in this directory are evidence that international business activities in our islands are strong. This directory can serve as a useful marketing tool during the many programs and activities that involve Hawaii and Japan. As a major player in the digital global economy, we look forward to welcoming a diversified industry mix of companies from Japan, including those that are involved in technology-based initiatives.

Many thanks to the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce for positively promoting Hawaii-Japan business relations through the distribution of this directory.

BENJAMIN J. CAYETANO

MESSAGE FROM SEIJI F. NAYA

Aloha!

It is with great pleasure that I congratulate the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce (HJCC) for publishing the Japanese Companies Registered to do Business in Hawaii directory.

The HJCC has made significant contributions in Hawaii to perpetuate the Hawaii-Japan business relationships over the years. Through its annual business missions to Japan and regular activities locally, the HJCC continues to provide Hawaii companies opportunities to meet and network with public and private sector organizations from Japan.

For its dedication and service to Hawaii's business community, I commend the HJCC, its board of directors and membership for embarking on the production of this publication which is a compilation of the Japanese companies registered to do business in Hawaii.

The Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism is pleased to be a co-sponsor of this important publication which depicts the breadth of business activities in these islands.

SEIJI F. NAYA

MESSAGE

It gives me great pleasure to present this revised edition of the directory of Japanese Companies Registered to do Business in Hawaii. This directory is published in partnership between the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce, Hawaii State Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, and OBUN Hawaii.

Japanese companies have been operating businesses in Hawaii for many years and have become an integral part of our community contributing greatly to the social fabric and economic well-being of Hawaii. We hope that this directory will be a valuable resource document for businesses and the general community. We also hope that this directory will help in assessing business situations and in enhancing the development of strategies to maintain Hawaii as a viable center for business activities in the Asia-Pacific region.

Please share this directory with your contemporaries and clients.

HONOLULU JAPANESE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

SERVICES

Committees:

The results of committee activities are always the most significant service that can be provided to the community and membership. Projects and initiatives are geared to the best interest of our membership and the business community, in the areas of economic development, government affairs, international relations, cultural enhancement, and community concerns.

Resource Center:

Inquiries and information for Japan-Hawaii business development initiatives; access to Japan chamber of commerce; business referrals; mailing labels.

Reference Library:

Materials relative to Japan and Hawaii business sectors, including: Directories of business, trades, organizations, branch offices; current listings of business, trade, and investment opportunities; business and economic periodicals; and other bulletins and publications.

PROJECTS AND EVENTS

Business Conferences:

Annual business conference to promote business activity between Hawaii and Japan, and to encourage investments into selected industries in Hawaii.

Government Interaction:

Monitoring major legislative issues relative to business and its environment; allowing input into positions taken by the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce.

International Relations:

Monthly meetings with visiting delegations and other activities for the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce to strengthen the network of relationships within the Japanese business community.

Committee Meetings & Forums:

Monthly committee meetings to plan activities of the chamber and to implement the respective committee's program of work. Periodic luncheons and dinners with guest speakers to address current issues affecting our business environment. A broad range of topics include the visitor industry, international trade, economic development, taxes, political and community issues, and cultural understanding. Excellent opportunity to network with other members.

Members Workshops / Seminars /

Trade Show / Business Mission:

Periodic workshops designed to enhance your business's competitiveness and to meet other member firms. Subjects include public relations, marketing, Japanese business etiquette, health, periodic business missions to promote Hawaii and others.

Social Functions:

Functions designed to promote members fellowship away from workplace and business environment, including membership mixers, cocktails, banquets, and a monthly golf tournament, and quarterly goodwill tournaments.

Annual Events:

In addition to monthly activities, the following events highlight our calendar every year: Installation Banquet (2nd Saturday in July); Legislative Reception (January); Teru-Yaki Chicken Sale (February); Health Fair (April); Samurai Classic Invitational Golf Tournament (May).

PUBLICATIONS

Shoko Newsletter:

Monthly in-house newsletter highlighting business information and services of interest to our membership; also serves as a vehicle of interest to our membership and a vehicle for member companies' exposure, whether through very reasonably-priced advertising or through publishing of news releases.

Membership Directory:

Annual cross listing of membership by:

- 1) Member Names;
- 2) Company Names;
- 3) Trade

Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce Commemorative Souvenir Booklet:

A Commemorative Souvenir Booklet reflecting on a century of rich history and accomplishments. This booklet features some of the pioneer member companies of the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce and also profile some of our surviving past presidents.

Facilities:

Members of the Honolulu Japanese Chamber of Commerce are encouraged to utilize the facilities available at the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii.

Conference Rooms:

Phase 1 offers a conference room for meetings and classes that hold 16 people. Reservations are required through the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii (808) 945-7633.

Banquet Facilities:

You can enjoy a peaceful meeting place away from the hustle and bustle of Waikiki and downtown at the Manoa Grand Ballroom facilities. Airy and tranquil, the Banquet Hall can accommodate 150 to 600 guests. Arrangements can be made for breakfasts, luncheons, dinners or cocktail parties. The use of tables, chairs, a stage, microphones, podium, food & bar service are available with convenient parking within the structure. Reservations with deposit are required through Marian's Islandwide Catering (808) 621-6758.

Resource Center:

The Resource Center, located on the ground floor of the Japanese Cultural Center, is open from Wednesday through Friday between 10:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Please call the Resource Center at (808) 945-7633 to confirm hours of operation.

The Resource Center serves as a focal point in the state for public access to information pertaining to Japanese culture and the legacy of the Japanese in Hawaii. English and Japanese books, periodicals, pamphlets and articles are available for your use.

FOR EDUCATIONAL VIEWING

Tea House:

The Japanese Cultural center of Hawaii is also fortunate to house one of the few authentic Japanese Tea houses in Hawaii, constructed with imported materials and labor. The tea house is used only for educational purposes and not available for public use. Donated by the Urasenke Foundation.

For more information on the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawaii facilities, please call (808) 945-7633.
