

Good Medicine, Bad Behavior

A National Symposium on
Pharmaceutical Diversion

November 2, 2007

You Are Invited To Attend

Good Medicine, Bad Behavior

A National Symposium on
Pharmaceutical Diversion

Moderated by NBC's AI Roker

Hosted by

The DEA Museum Foundation &
The Drug Enforcement Administration

This first-ever national symposium on pharmaceutical diversion brings together experts in the fields of law enforcement, industry, public policy, science and health, and medical practitioners for a public discussion on the complex issues surrounding the diversion of pharmaceutical drugs and efforts to combat this growing problem in America today.

Friday, November 2, 2007
1 PM to 4 PM

DEA Museum Auditorium
700 Army Navy Drive
Arlington, Virginia 22202

RSVP by October 29th to 202.307.7434

Media Inquires:
DEA Public Affairs, 202.307.7977

www.goodmedicinebadbehavior.org

